To supplement our consolidated financial statements which are presented in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs"), adjusted segment EBITDA is used as an additional financial measure throughout this annual report. The financial measure is presented because it is used by management to evaluate operating performance. The Company believes that non-IFRS measure may provide useful information to help investors and others understand and evaluate the Company's consolidated results of operations in the same manner as management and in comparing financial results across accounting periods and to those of our peer companies. However, non-IFRS financial measure does not have a standardised meaning prescribed by IFRSs and therefore may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies.

Adjusted segment EBITDA used herein is defined as earnings before interest expense, taxation, depreciation and amortisation, and excludes fair value change on financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, written off of goodwill, impairment losses of other intangible assets and property, plant and equipment, share of results of associates and joint ventures and impairment/(reversal of impairment) on financial and contract assets, loss on promissory note derecognised and other corporate expenses.

Please refer to note 4 to the consolidated financial statements in this annual report for reconciliation of loss before tax, an IFRS measure, to adjusted segment EBITDA.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the Board of Graphex Group Limited, I am pleased to present the 2024 annual report of the Group.

The year 2024 was marked by both adversity and opportunity, and I wish to acknowledge the unprecedented challenges faced by our industry and the global economy. Geopolitical tensions, inflationary pressures, and a fragile macroeconomic environment created significant obstacles. These factors impacted our expansion plans, delayed project timelines, and necessitated strategic recalibrations to ensure sustainability. Nonetheless, I believe these challenges also offer opportunities for differentiation and long-term growth.

Our expansion initiatives in China encountered unforeseen obstacles due to logistical and bureaucratic issues, prompting us to postpone the implementation timelines for new anode material production facilities to maintain quality and align with market realities. Furthermore, in light of export restrictions on graphite and graphene products to the US, our involvement in the US battery material supply chain will be invaluable.

While 2025 will undoubtedly present its own trials, I remain optimistic about our long-term trajectory. Leading economies are showing early signs of recovery, with inflation cooling and central banks indicating potential rate cuts. Government incentives for renewable energy, electric vehicles, drones, and robots will unlock new revenue streams.

Thus, 2025 will be a year focused on resilience, adaptation, and preparation. Despite inevitable short-term challenges, our strong foundation – built on innovation, agility, and a customer-centric approach – positions us to thrive in the years ahead. I extend my sincere gratitude for your unwavering support and look forward to sharing our progress and celebrating milestones together.

Yours Sincerely,

Lau Hing Tat Patrick, JP

BUSINESS REVIEW

Graphene Products Business

In 2024, the revenue contributed by the Graphene Products Segment for the year ended 31 December 2024 recorded a year-to-year decline of 39% to approximately HK$118.0 million, representing 63% of the total revenue of the Group. The decline in revenue is due to drop of price caused by keen competition. The adjusted EBITDA of Graphene Products Segment is down 54% to approximately HK$17.7 million compared to that of 2023. For the year ended 31 December 2024, the total output of spherical graphite was approximately 10,000 metric tons. All of the spherical graphite is produced and sold in China in 2024.

Geopolitical tensions and government policies concerning critical minerals have significantly impacted the Group's global expansion strategy. Consequently, the Group will continue to adopt a cautious approach to increasing the production capacity of our graphene products. Recently, three new patents belonging to the Group have been published, and one new patent application has been submitted. These patents pertain to innovative processing technologies and the manufacturing of silicon-carbon anode materials. The Group is firmly convinced that investing in technology and research is essential for maintaining its position within the battery supply chain.

Chief Executive Officer

Landscape Architecture Design Business

For the year ended 31 December 2024, the Landscape Architecture segment contributed revenue of approximately HK$69.9 million, representing approximately 37% of the Group's total revenue. The segment revenue decreased by HK$27.1 million from approximately HK$97.0 million, representing a 28% drop. The gross profit margin of the Landscape Architecture business increased by approximately 15 percentage points to about 58% for the year ended 31 December 2024, as compared with that of 43% for the year ended 31 December 2023.

The reduction in revenue was mainly due to slowdown in real estate development market in China. Despite challenging market conditions in 2024, impact on our Landscape Architecture segment was relatively less rigorous compared to the industry as a whole. We have continued to exercise tight cost control on our landscape architecture design business while maintaining the quality of our production.

The Group has strived to ensure the provision of quality landscape architecture services and sustain our market leadership in the industry.

The number of new contracts and contract sum entered by the Group during 2022 to 2024 are set out as follows:

Year ended 31 December	No. of new contracts	Contract sum (HK$'million)
2024	89	67.8
2023	89	67.6
2022	121	113.9

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Revenue

The Graphene segment contributed revenue of approximately HK$118.0 million to the Group, representing a decrease of approximately 39%, compared with HK$194.9 million for the year ended 31 December 2023. The Group's total revenue decreased to approximately HK$187.9 million, compared with HK$291.9 million for the year ended 31 December 2023, representing year-on-year decrease of approximately 36%.

Cost of sales

Cost of sales decreased to approximately HK$119.5 million for the year ended 31 December 2024, representing a decrease of approximately 39%, as compared with that of approximately HK$195.1 million for the year ended 31 December 2023. Cost of sales mainly represented staff cost in respect of the landscape architecture business and cost of inventories in respect of the Graphene business. The decrease was generally in line with the decrease in revenue.

Gross profit and gross profit margin

Gross profit decreased to approximately HK$68.3 million for the year ended 31 December 2024, representing a decrease of approximately 29%, as compared with that of approximately HK$96.8 million for the year ended 31 December 2023.

Gross profit margin increased by approximately 3 percentage points to approximately 36% for the year ended 31 December 2024, as compared with that of approximately 33% for the year ended 31 December 2023. The overall increase in gross profit margin was due to the increase of gross profit margin in landscape architecture segment during the reporting year.

Selling, marketing and administrative expenses

Selling, marketing and administrative expenses decreased to approximately HK$136.2 million for the year ended 31 December 2024, representing a decrease of approximately 8%, as compared with that of approximately HK$148.5 million for the same period in 2023. The decrease was mainly due to (i) the decrease in selling and marketing expenses which is in line with the decrease in revenue; (ii) the decrease in rental expense as an one-off expense relating to short-term leases was paid in 2023 while there is no such expense in 2024; (iii) the decrease in share-based payment expenses including share awards to directors, employees and consultants; and (iv) the decrease in depreciation of property, plant and equipment as certain fixed asset were impaired in 2024.

Impairment loss on financial and contract assets

It mainly represented impairment loss of trade and bills receivables, contract assets, and other receivables. Such impairment loss increased to approximately HK$27.7 million for the year ended 31 December 2024, representing an increase of approximately 24%, as compared with that of approximately HK$22.3 million for the same period in 2023. The impairment mainly reflected the Group's credit loss under the less favourable market and economic environment which negatively affected the Group's collectability on financial and contract assets.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

During the period after 31 December 2024 and up to 26 March 2025, the subsequent settlements received from the customers are analyzed as follows:

	At 31 December 2024 HK$'000	Subsequent settlements received up to 26 March 2025 HK$'000	%
Contract assets, net	17,115	5,524	32%
Trade and bills receivables, net of provisions for impairments
Within 6 months	71,681	19,092	27%
Over 6 months but within 1 year	41,076	23,844	58%
Over 1 year but within 2 years	69,304	72,984	105%
Over 2 years but within 3 years	–	763	N/A
Over 3 years	–	33	N/A
	182,061	116,716	64%
	199,176	122,240	61%

For the long outstanding balances, the Company has taken a series of actions from time to time including suspension of the project, issuing of demand notes by legal counsel, and lodge of legal proceedings.

Impairment test of Graphene Business

The Group engaged International Valuation Limited (“IVL”) (2023: STEAM Valuation Advisory Limited (“STEAM”)), an independent firm of qualified valuers not related to the Group and with qualifications and experiences in valuing similar assets, to determine the recoverable amount of CGU of the Graphene Business to which goodwill of HK$101,939,000 (2023: HK$101,939,000), other intangible assets of HK$408,181,000 (2023: HK$460,623,000), property, plant and equipment of HK$8,939,000 (2023: HK$9,990,000) and right-of-use assets of HK$11,020,000 (2023: HK$12,468,000) (note 13) are allocated, as at 31 December 2024 and 2023.

With reference to the assessment by IVL (2023: STEAM), the recoverable amount of the CGU of the Graphene Business at 31 December 2024 is estimated at approximately HK$655,184,000 (2023: HK$787,327,000). As the recoverable amount of the CGU of the Graphene Business exceeded its carrying amount, with headroom of approximately HK$17.2 million (2023: HK$86.4 million), no impairment was required for the years ended 31 December 2024 and 2023.

The directors of the Company believe that any reasonably possible change in any of these assumptions would not cause the aggregate carrying amount of the assets of the Group of the CGU to exceed the recoverable amount of the assets of the Group of the CGU which cause an impairment loss.

Please also refer to the Prospects section of this annual report for the future development of the Graphene Products Segment.

Further details were set out in note 14 to the consolidated financial statements in this annual report.

	2024 HK$'000	2023 HK$'000
Contracted, but not provided for:
Acquisition of property, plant and equipment	5,637	5,220

- (ii) On 20 September 2022, the Company entered into a cooperation agreement with the Jixi Mashan Government relating to the cooperation in connection with the Company's intended strategic investment for setting up graphite deep processing and production facilities located in the Jixi (Mashan) Graphite Industrial Park with an intended annual output of 30,000 metric tons of high-purity spherical graphite and 10,000 metric tons of battery anode materials to promote the rapid development of the regional graphite new material industry. The Company intends to carry out this project in two phases, with the first phase of this project for the setting up graphite deep processing and production facilities with an annual output capacity of 20,000 metric tons of high-purity spherical graphite and the second phase of this project for the setting up graphite deep processing and production facilities with an annual output capacity of 10,000 metric tons of high-purity spherical graphite and 10,000 metric tons of battery anode materials. It is estimated that the Company's total investment in the first phase of this project will be not less than RMB200 million. The Company intends to fund the first phase of this project by the Group's internal resources and/or bank borrowings and/or future fund-raising exercise. At the reporting period end, no contract for the construction of the plant and/or the equipment for this project was entered into.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

- (iii) On 19 July 2023, the Company entered into the Cooperation Agreement with the Nanshu Town Government pursuant to which the Company and the Nanshu Town Government intended to have a cooperation in the “Graphite Anode Material Project” (“Phase 1 Project”) in Laixi City Nanshu Town New Material Industrial Park which is situated in Nanshu Town, Laixi City, Shandong Province, the PRC. Subject to obtaining all approval from the PRC government, the Company will set up the factory plants for the manufacturing of lithium-ion battery anode materials in the Park. The Company can apply for the relevant policy subsidies of “Several Preferential Measures for Investment Promotion in Laixi City (Trial)” (Xifa [2023] No. 1) after meeting the relevant requirements. It is estimated that the Company’s total investment will be around RMB1,000 million. The Company intends to fund the Phase 1 Project by the Group’s internal resources and/or bank borrowings and/or future fundraising exercise. The Company obtained the energy permit for Phase 1 Project in August 2024 and is pending for the approval of the environmental permit. The Company was informed by the local power supply authorities that the current power supply was not sufficient for the factory use of Phase 1 Project. The Company has consulted a local power engineering company regarding this issue and is negotiating with the landlord and Nanshu Town Government about possible remedies. In light of this situation, Phase 1 Project implementation will be delayed.

On 10 January 2024, Graphex Shangdong, an indirectly wholly-owned subsidiary of the Group, as the tenant, and an independent third party, the landlord, entered into a lease agreement in respect of the factory buildings located in Laixi City, Shandong Province, PRC for an aggregate term of 10 years made up of an initial term of 5 years and a subsequent term of 5 years which shall be extended automatically after expiry of the initial term. The undiscounted total rentals payable under the lease agreement for the full lease term of 10 years is RMB58,872,000 (equivalent as stipulated in the lease agreement to approximately HK$65,936,000). Due to the delay implementation of Phase 1 for reasons mentioned above, the factory buildings as stipulated in the lease agreement have not been handed over to Graphex Shangdong up to the date of approval of these consolidated financial statements, and the landlord has agreed that Graphex Shangdong lease agreement will not be commenced until the landlord has provided Graphex Shangdong with the legal proof of its right to lease the factory buildings. The right-of-use assets and the lease liabilities have not yet recognised at 31 December 2024.

- (iv) During the year and at the reporting period end pursuant to the above Cooperation Agreement, the Company and the Nanshu Town Government have intention of jointly working in the construction of the Phase 2 of graphite deep processing project located in the graphite industry cluster area of Nanshu Town (the “Phase 2 Project”). The estimated investment amount of the Phase 2 Project is RMB2 billion and the Phase 2 Project is mainly engaged in the production and processing of lithium battery anode materials. Upon to the date of approval of financial statements, no formal agreement or lease agreement has been made for Phase 2 Project.

The Group mainly operates and invests in Hong Kong and the PRC but most of the transactions are denominated and settled in HK$ and RMB. No significant foreign currency risk has been identified for the financial assets in the PRC as they were basically denominated in a currency same as the functional currencies of the group entities to which these transactions relate. Nevertheless, the Directors will closely monitor the Group's foreign currency position and consider natural hedge technique to manage its foreign currency exposures by non-financial methods, managing the transaction currency, leading and lagging payments, receivable management, etc.. Save for meeting working capital needs, the Group only holds minimum foreign currency.

Human resources and employees' remuneration

PROSPECTS

The global shift towards electrification as a pathway to sustainability will drive an increasing demand for rechargeable batteries over the coming years. This heightened demand is anticipated due to the expanding applications of these batteries in various sectors such as electric vehicles, renewable energy storage, consumer electronics, and numerous industrial uses.

Despite the continuous advancements in battery technologies and the emergence of new systems, lithium-ion batteries are expected to remain the cornerstone of energy storage solutions. Their reliability, efficiency, and cost-effectiveness make them the preferred choice for both established and novel applications. Graphite, as the primary material used for the anodes in lithium-ion batteries, will continue to be in high demand to support this growth.

The Group has laid out a comprehensive five-year plan focusing on expanding production capacity, intensifying research and development efforts, and exploring innovative battery systems. This strategic investment aims to ensure that our production of graphite anode materials can meet the evolving requirements of different battery chemistries. Furthermore, our commitment to responsible and environmentally friendly production processes aligns with the rising environmental and social expectations from various stakeholders. This holistic approach positions us to effectively cater to the increasing demand for lithium-ion batteries while adhering to stringent ESG standards and sustainability practices.

There is no performance target attached with the shares awards granted under the 2023 Share Award Scheme which, however, are subject to general clawback mechanism that if a grantee ceases to be a participant on the grounds that he has committed any act of fraud or dishonesty or serious misconduct, or has been declared or adjudged to be bankrupt, or has been convicted of any criminal offence or has been convicted for any offence under any securities laws or regulations in Hong Kong, that relevant share awards made to such grantee shall automatically be cancelled.

The Remuneration Committee has noted that the 2023 Share Award Scheme is intended to attract talents, suitable personnel and entities who will accept awarded shares as part of their remuneration, compensation or payment packages for the development and growth of the businesses of the Group; to award certain selected participants with award shares for accepting their appointments, employments or engagement by the Group; to provide certain participants with incentives in order to retain them for the continual operation, development and growth of the Group and to improve or create sense of connection and/or loyalty of certain selected participants to the Group. In recommending the grant of those share awards to the selected participants and determining the number of share awards and the relevant vesting periods for the share awards to be granted, the Remuneration Committee has considered factors such as (i) whether they were considered as talent and personnel that could contribute to the development and growth of the business of the Group that the Company would want to recruit with reference to their industry experience, tenure and roles with the Group; (ii) the remuneration of them including the grant of share awards as part of their remuneration packages as an incentive offered by the Group as compared with those offered by the industry peers in order to attract them in joining the Group; (iii) whether they would accept award shares as part of their remuneration or compensation package and as inducement for them to accept any offer for appointment; (iv) the business synergy and opportunities that might be brought by them to the Group; and (v) whether the share awards could further motivate their performances for the benefit of the businesses of the Group.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

The Remuneration Committee considered that for those share awards granted with the vesting period less than 12 months from the date of grant is appropriate and necessary to enable the Company to provide competitive terms and conditions to valuable talent for the development and growth of the Group's Graphene Products Business. It is necessary to enable the Company to offer competitive employment package to the grantees in order to retain valuable and loyal talent and to attract the talent and suitable personnel who will accept award shares as part of his/her remuneration, compensation or payment packages in accepting to stay on and continue his/her employment with the Group to further promote the development and growth of the Group's businesses, to improve or create sense of connection and/or loyalty of him/her to the Group and to provide incentive to him/her to continue to work for the success and improve the performance of the Group and thus it could align the interest of the grantees with the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

Accordingly, having taken into account the factors above, the Remuneration Committee considered that notwithstanding the absence of performance targets, the shorter vesting period and the limited clawback mechanism, the share awards granted during the year ended 31 December 2023 can incentivize the grantees to strive for the future development of the Company which was in line with the purpose of 2023 Share Award Scheme.

During the year ended 31 December 2024, there was no share awards granted under the 2023 Share Award Scheme.

During the year ended 31 December 2024, the number of unvested awards granted under the 2023 Share Award Scheme at the beginning and end of the reporting period was 56,794,510 and 500,000, respectively. ### 4. RESPONSIBLE FOR OUR OPERATIONS

The Group is committed to business ethics and responsible service delivery. Through a sound operational system, the Group has therefore put in place a series of policies and measures on supply chain management, product responsibility and anti-corruption to safeguard the brand and market performance.

4.1. Product and Service Quality & Safety

4.1.1. Graphene segment

Graphene, a thin layer of pure carbon atoms, is the thinnest and hardest nanomaterial known at present. With high thermal and electrical conductivity and excellent light transmission, it has broad application potential in electronics, optics, magnetism, biomedicine, catalysis, energy storage and sensors, as well as many other fields. To manufacture this “Black Gold”, spherical and micronized graphite is needed as input material. As a leader in the graphite processing industry in China, the Group’s Heilongjiang facility is engaged in the deep processing of raw graphite material (flake graphite and semi-spherical graphite) to spherical and micronized graphite. The facility ensures product quality through systematic control measures throughout the processing stages, while the safety of workers is safeguarded through safety policies (See Section: Employee Health & Safety).

4.1.2. Landscape architecture segment

The Group’s landscape architecture segment operates by the Quality Management Manual in accordance with ISO 9001:2015 to enhance the management of design or services. In order to ensure that the final design meets the requirements of various stakeholders, the Group holds project meetings occasionally to understand the needs and suggestions of all parties and strictly complies with national and regional legal requirements in the project design process. The Group’s management also reviews the status of projects from time to time to ensure that workflow is in accordance with relevant regulations. In future, the Group will also collect customer feedback and suggestions through the customer satisfaction survey and carry out improvement work based on customers’ feedback to improve the quality of projects and services.

- 4.1.3. All of the Group’s landscape design work complies with relevant national or regional laws, regulations and guidelines (e.g. the Civil Engineering and Development Department’s Guidelines on Safe Access for Slope Maintenance; the Architectural Services Department’s Guidelines on Universal Accessibility for External Areas, Open Spaces and Green Spaces; and the GLTM Section’s Proper Planting Practices and other latest relevant landscape and tree risk assessment guidelines) to ensure that the requirements on design safety and community health impacts are met.

4.2. Supply Chain Management

4.2.1. The Group attaches importance to the management of environmental and social risks in the supply chain and encourages suppliers to be environmentally and socially responsible. The Group has developed the Office Handbook, the Code of Conduct and the ESG Policy to standardise the Group's supplier selection process.

4.2.2. Currently, the Group's suppliers are mainly suppliers of raw graphite material, travel agencies, professional services, and food suppliers. For office procurement matters, relevant staff should fill in the Purchase Requisition Form and submit it to the Administration Department for confirmation before the procurement. Additionally, the Group also assesses suppliers on an ad-hoc basis to ensure that they comply with the Group's environmental and social requirements. The landscape architecture segment strives to maximise the use of low-carbon and non-hazardous material in their designs. With regards to the management of social risks of its supply chain, the Group strictly prohibits any individuals or organisations that are related to the Group, including suppliers, to offer employees illegal benefits which can affect their business decision-making. Offenders should be disqualified from supplier list.

4.2.3. The number of suppliers by countries or regions is presented as follows:

	Hong Kong	Mainland China
Number of suppliers	14	63

4.3. Customer Privacy

4.3.1. The Group's Office Handbook stipulates that, all employees are prohibited from disclosing customers' information, including but are not limited to customers' names, contact numbers and addresses, to any third parties without the consent of the employer or the Group. The Company also protects the personal data of its employees as required by the code of practice obligations and has set out the Company's Privacy Policy in its Office Handbook.

4.4. Intellectual Property Rights

4.4.1. The Group undertakes to sign non-disclosure agreements with its clients in the course of cooperation to ensure the intellectual property rights of both parties are not infringed. For the time being, the Group's operations do not involve matters relating to product advertising, labels using and customer complaints. The Group will update the relevant policies in accordance with its business development in a timely manner.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

5. CARE FOR OUR EMPLOYEE

Graphex believes that a good employment environment is one of the key steps in promoting the Group's sustainable development. The Group is committed to creating a safe and comfortable working environment for its employees, providing a sound career development system to ensure all employees are respected and motivated.

5.1. Employment Practices

5.1.1. A sound employment system is not only the key to attract talents, but also an important security for employee's rights and interests. The Group has formulated the ESG Policy, Office Handbook and the Staff Handbook adopted by all operational sites to improve the Group's regulations on remuneration and dismissal, recruitment and promotion, working hours, leave, equal opportunities and anti-discrimination, diversity and other benefits.

Details of the above policies include:

Remuneration and dismissal	Recruitment and promotion	Working hours
The employment contract signed by each employee of the Group must clearly specify the remuneration package of the position and set out the termination procedures and conditions of dismissal (e.g. serious misconduct). Each site of operation also has its own Staff Handbook, which is updated in a timely manner. For example, the Staff Handbook states that the employee's wages include basic wages, position pay, and overtime pay; if a regular employee resigns, the resignation application should be filled out 30 days in advance and reported to all levels of management for approval.	The Group's management conducts an annual performance review of its staff and determines the promotion based on their performance. The review also includes climate-related KPI. In addition, the Staff Handbook states that recruitment is based on the principle of "open recruitment, merit-based selection"; promotion decisions are based on daily performance and are reviewed by the Human Resources Department and approved by the general manager.	The Group's normal working hours are 8 hours per day, 5 days per week, with a 1-hour lunch break.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Leave	Equal opportunities and anti-discrimination	Diversity
The Group strictly follows the relevant local laws and regulations in the respective sites of operation and makes reasonable arrangements for employees' holidays, such as annual leave and sick leave.	The Group is committed to providing fair employment opportunities for all employees and prohibits all forms of discrimination and harassment on the basis of race, skin colour, religion, sex, physical condition, marriage and family and national origin. ### 5.3. Employee Health and Safety

- 5.3.1. The Group places the health and safety of its employees as top priority. At our graphene processing plant, our safety policy governs the mechanisms in place to ensure occupational risks are minimized. The following outlines major safety protocol and measure the plant implements:

Worker safety

All new workers at the processing plant is required to receive and pass the three-tier safety training. For personnel in charge of critical equipment and facilities, they are required to obtain operating certificates in accordance with relevant national regulations. To protect workers against dust hazards, the plant adopts the latest technology, such as a negative pressure system that ensures the effective delivery of fresh air. All personal protection equipment (PPE) provided to employees meet national or industry standards.

Storage safety

The input material required for operations are stored in special areas that meet relevant conditions, such as in terms of sun and moisture protection, ventilation, lightning protection, anti-static features etc.. The storage areas are equipped with fire-fighting equipment and communication and alarm devices.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Equipment safety

The input, intermediate and output products used in the operation process generates graphite powder. Although there is no risk of dust explosion, it is able to penetrate surrounding electrical equipment and cause short circuits and electric shock accidents. Thus, all electrical equipment in the vicinity are inspected and cleaned frequently to prevent such damage. The mechanical equipment used during operations are mainly high-pressure centrifugal fans, shut-off fans, filter presses, automatic packaging machines, etc., which are all qualified products with safety protection devices.

Accident prevention

The plant has established safety prevention mechanisms at all levels. Front-line workers have reporting channels available to report potential safety issues in a timely manner. Safety management personnel ensure the reported issues are addressed and rectified by the maintenance team. In addition, the safety team engages in regular safety risk assessments to identify and mitigate potential safety hazards. In the event of an accident, the emergency plan is immediately activated and each case is investigated thoroughly to identify the root causes to avert against similar cases in the future.

5.3.2. At our offices, the Staff Handbook gives guidance to employees on handling occupational safety matters. For example, if old, worn or loose wiring is spotted, the relevant personnel should immediately notify the department head or an electrician; if an accident occurs, the relevant personnel should immediately notify the general manager and personnel department and escort the injured to the hospital.

5.4. Pandemic Measures

5.4.1. In response to the potential outbreak of pandemics, we have taken a range of actions and measures to ensure business resilience, as well as ensure the safety of our employees and customers. The actions we implemented include but are not limited to:

- We integrated pandemic risks into the enterprise risk management mechanism. We constantly explore diversified businesses to avoid concentration in few business sectors or regions. Moreover, we included pandemic-related reporting and management guidelines in business continuity plans.
- We embraced new communications technologies to facilitate seamless communication for business continuity. During the reporting period, we have made extensive usage of the Zoom infrastructure.
- We provided protective and disinfection products such as face masks, alcohol-based hand sanitisers, bleach, cleansers and gloves at the workplace.
- We adopted special work arrangements, such as work-from-home policies and/or flexible working hours (to avoid peak hour travelling).

5.5. Staff Welfare Activities

5.5.1. Graphex holds activities for staff from time to time, to enhance employee well-being and sense of belonging in the company, we hold activities during festivity and birthday celebrations. The following lists some of the activities that were held this year:

- Graphex 10th listing anniversary party

6.3.2. The Group is working towards improving our performance on reducing air emissions, the Group is actively including studying the feasibility in monitoring air quality and encouraging employees to use public transport and other low-carbon emission travel methods, we aim to lower the air emissions year by year. We have encouraged our staff especially the senior staff to take public transport, while special permission is required from director for staff who request to use the company car for field trip.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

6.4. Waste

6.4.1. During the reporting period, the Group generated a total of 0 kg of hazardous waste, which was composed of waste chemicals and graphite residues from graphite processing, as well as waste batteries and electronic equipment. All hazardous waste are handled by authorised contractors according to local regulations, while graphite residues were resold to third-parties for re-use/recycling. With regard to non-hazardous waste, the Group generated a total of 2,269.15 kg that was composed of general waste and recycled metal, plastic and paper.

– Recycled	kg	0	0	284	222
Non-hazardous waste intensity (per Gross Floor Area)	kg/m <sup>2</sup>	0.16	0.14	1.91	0.99

6.4.2. In the graphite processing facility, another solid waste generated is sewage sludge separated after the neutralisation of the sewage. A sewage treatment station was built for the neutralisation treatment, where some of the treated wastewater is reused and some would be discharged. The sludge is collected and used for brick burning or road paving to avoid disposal and wastage.

6.4.3. The Group will continue to reduce hazardous waste and reuse and recycle non-hazardous waste on and off site in the forthcoming year.

6.4.4. In order to reduce non-hazardous waste from source and encourage recycling, the Group has placed recycling bins for waste recycling. Besides, HK office has installed a smart printing system to the two printers where access card is required for print out with restricted no. of printing quota. Printing request will be automatically cancelled if access card is not presented for more than 24 hours. This practice has successfully reduced paper waste production.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

6.5. Protecting the Environment and Natural Resources

6.5.1. Noise

Noise pollution is one environmental impact arising from the graphite processing facility. The major source of noise in the facility is the air compressor, which is installed in an isolated room. To mitigate the impact of noise, the facility selects advanced technology and equipment with low noise. Noise absorption and shock absorbing measures are also implemented. For example, the compressor outlet is equipped with a resistant muffler that reduces the noise level by around 30 dB.

6.5.2. Other natural resources

In all landscape design projects, the Group adheres to the principles of protecting natural habitats, and biodiversity conservation, in order to reduce the impact on natural resources and surrounding environment. In various projects with landscape builders, the Group also promotes the use of renewable energy in all possible circumstances. A complaint mechanism is also established to handle and respond to environmental-related comments and suggestions in a timely manner.

Graphex has been taking the leading role to promote biodiversity and blue-green infrastructure in both our landscape practices and research. In 2024, HK office has applied a funding from Professional Services Advancement Support Scheme of the HK government to conduct a research on HK Urban Landscape Series – Sustainable Urban Streetscapes with an aim to promote the concept of urban forestry, biodiversity and blue-green infrastructure for the industry and the public about the importance to build up a resilient city against climate change.

6.6. Case Study 1:

Project: TWGHs E-Co Village

Address: 180 Wan Po Road, Tseung Kwan O, N.T.

The landscape design and native tree planting of the TWGHs E-Co Village project in Tseung Kwan O can significantly promote environmental sustainability, ecological health, social engagement, and good governance. Here's how each aspect is enhanced through thoughtful design and planting strategies:

Environmental Benefits

- Waste Reduction & Sustainability: The project's "Transforming Waste into Energy" principle aligns with the use of sustainable materials and ecological landscaping techniques, reducing environmental impact.
- Water Management & Soil Stabilization: Native vegetation aids in water retention and mitigates soil erosion, enhancing stormwater management on the revitalized landfill.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Ecological Contributions

- Biodiversity Enhancement: Native tree planting encourages local wildlife, including birds, pollinators, and beneficial insects, creating a balanced ecosystem.
- Restoration of Natural Habitats: The project rehabilitates a landfill site into an ecologically thriving space, showcasing how urban land can be repurposed for sustainability.
- Microclimate Regulation: Green spaces lower temperatures, reducing the heat island effect in Tseung Kwan O while creating a comfortable outdoor environment.

Social Impact

- Environmental Education & Awareness: The Eco Village serves as an immersive learning space, teaching youth, families, and communities about sustainable living.
- Community Engagement & Well-being: The integration of open lawns, a horticultural therapy garden, and an organic farm fosters social interactions and encourages green lifestyles.
- Recreational & Experiential Benefits: The kinetic children's playground and relaxation spaces offer opportunities for individuals to connect with nature and enhance their overall well-being.

Governance & Policy Alignment

- Support for Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs): The project aligns with global and local sustainability initiatives, reinforcing Hong Kong's environmental policies.
- Public-Private Collaboration: The site demonstrates successful partnerships between government entities, NGOs, and the community to drive ecological and social progress.
- Long-Term Environmental Stewardship: By maintaining green spaces and promoting native planting, the project instills a governance model focused on long-term sustainability.

The TWGHs E-Co Village exemplifies how landscape architecture and ecological restoration can bridge environmental responsibility, community well-being, and effective governance.

6.7. Case Study 2:

Project: Kai Tak Light Public Housing

Address: Olympic Avenue, Kai Tak (Phase 1)

The landscape design of the Kai Tak Light Public Housing project can play a significant role in promoting environmental sustainability, enhancing social well-being, and supporting effective governance. - The project repurposes government and private land for temporary housing. Thoughtful landscape design ensures ecological benefits even if the site is later redeveloped for other uses.
- Incorporating native vegetation reduces maintenance costs and supports local biodiversity.

2. Urban Cooling & Climate Adaptation

- Shaded pathways, and tree-lined streets mitigate the heat island effect, improving comfort levels for residents.
- Greenery in common green spaces optimizes space while enhancing air quality and urban cooling.

3. Stormwater Management & Flood Resilience

- Permeable pavements help absorb rainwater, reducing urban runoff and flood risks.
- Well-designed drainage systems integrated with landscape features can ensure efficient water management.

Social Contributions

1. Improving Livability in Temporary Housing

- While Light Public Housing is temporary, integrating landscape design helps enhance the well-being of residents by offering green spaces for relaxation and social interaction.
- Access to greenery has proven psychological and health benefits, reducing stress and promoting a sense of stability among residents.

2. Encouraging Social Cohesion & Community Engagement

- Common green spaces allow residents to interact, fostering a sense of belonging and shared identity.
- Community gardens can encourage participation, providing opportunities for residents to engage in sustainable practices.

3. Safe & Inclusive Public Spaces

- Well-lit and accessible pathways ensure safe movement for elderly individuals, families with children, and persons with disabilities.
- Play areas and gathering spaces offer recreational opportunities for all ages, fostering a community-oriented living environment.

Governance & Policy Alignment

1. Sustainability in Government-led Housing Solutions

- The landscape strategy aligns with Hong Kong's broader commitment to sustainable urban development, showcasing how temporary housing can be both functional and environmentally responsible.
- Incorporating modular greenery ensures that landscape elements can be relocated or repurposed once the land undergoes future redevelopment.

2. Public-Private Collaboration & Long-Term Stewardship

- Partnerships with NGOs and environmental groups could enhance landscape management, ensuring long-term sustainability.
- Public involvement in maintaining green spaces fosters a sense of ownership, reducing costs and increasing community participation.

3. Resilient Infrastructure for Future Needs

- The inclusion of energy-efficient lighting, and climate-adaptive planting strengthens long-term ecological resilience.
- The project serves as an innovative model for adaptive urban planning, demonstrating how temporary housing can be integrated with ecological and social sustainability goals.

The Kai Tak Light Public Housing project presents a unique opportunity to showcase how landscape design can enrich temporary urban housing solutions. By prioritizing environmental, social, and governance-focused strategies, the project can significantly improve livability, sustainability, and resilience for its residents.

6.8. Student Visit

The Group organised several student visits (please refer to section 4.6.2 of this ESG Report) to its office of landscape design segment company in Hong Kong. The student visits serve as an educational initiative to promote sustainable landscape practices, biodiversity preservation, and green infrastructure, aligning with its commitment to environmental stewardship. By demonstrating the use of sustainable materials, native plants, and water-efficient designs, the Group reinforces its dedication to eco-conscious practices while inspiring future professionals to adopt environmentally responsible approaches in their work.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

7. ADDRESSING CLIMATE CHANGE

7.1. Climate Change

We are committed to taking proactive steps to mitigate our environmental impact and enhance our climate resilience. By leveraging innovation, technology, and collaboration, we aim to contribute to a sustainable future while ensuring the long-term success and resilience of our operations. In alignment with the Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) Reporting Guide issued by the HKEX, we have improved the climate risk management process, conducted evaluations of climate-related risks and opportunities, and improved the disclosure of climate change information in the four dimensions: governance, strategy, risk management, and metrics and targets. Additionally, we have explored effective carbon reduction measures and actively addressed the challenges posed by climate change.

7.2. Governance

Under the leadership of management, we established a climate change working group (the “Working Group”). The Working Group is responsible for coordinating the daily management of climate-related risks and opportunities, identifying and assessing these risks and opportunities, implementing mitigation strategies and responsive measures and report to management. For more information on the Group’s governance structure, please refer to the subsection “Governance Structure” under the “Our ESG Approach” section of this ESG Report.

The Working Group and department heads hold meetings at least annually to discuss climate change-related risks, opportunities, and management strategies. These discussions aim to enhance the Working Group’s understanding of climate-related issues, oversee the effectiveness of the Group’s strategies, and ensure that climate considerations are fully integrated into risk management procedures and policies. The Working Group reports findings to management to support timely decision-making.

To advance our climate-related goals, the Group has set targets such as energy conservation and greenhouse gas emission reduction. The Working Group regularly reviews and evaluates progress toward these targets annually. In the future, we plan to incorporate climate-related key performance indicators (KPIs) into the team’s performance appraisal system to incentivize proactive efforts in addressing climate change.

7.3. Strategy

Climate Risk Identification and Management

Recognizing the importance of climate resilience, we have systematically embedded climate considerations into our strategic planning processes. Through a multi-faceted approach, we identify and assess climate-related risks and opportunities across corporate, business, and operational levels. This enables the Group to effectively position itself in the low-carbon transition while capturing emerging opportunities.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

The following table outlines the risks and opportunities identified by the Group over the short term (1–3 years), medium term (4–5 years), and long term (beyond 5 years). While the Group has chosen not to apply a carbon price in decision-making, we remain committed to developing a robust climate strategy.

Climate Resilience

In 2025, we intend to adopt climate change scenario analysis to evaluate the severity of physical risks under future climate scenarios. This will ensure that resources are allocated efficiently to manage risks with higher impact levels.

7.4. Risk Management

We have implemented a systematic framework to identify, assess, and manage climate-related risks across our operations. Climate risks have been integrated into the Group's daily risk management systems, where we evaluate specific physical and transitional risks and optimize management measures accordingly. In addition to mitigating risks, we leverage our business strengths to explore new opportunities brought about by climate change.

The Group has established a comprehensive process for identifying, prioritizing, and monitoring climate-related risks and opportunities. Annual internal discussions and industry analysis allow us to identify material climate risks and prioritize them using risk assessment tools based on likelihood, business impact, and relevance to our operations. This approach ensures that the most significant risks and opportunities are addressed effectively.

Management plays a pivotal role in overseeing the assessment of climate-related risks and opportunities, ensuring the establishment of an effective ESG risk management framework. Management determines the Group's risk appetite, analyzes key risks, and formulates strategies to address climate-related challenges proactively.

7.5. Metrics and Targets

To ensure the effective implementation of our climate strategies, we closely monitor energy consumption and greenhouse gas emissions. Progress toward energy-saving targets is reviewed regularly.

Target indicator	Target	Progress
Energy saving	Using 2024 as the base year, reducing energy consumption intensity by 5% by 2030	On plan
Greenhouse gas emissions	Using 2024 as the base year, reducing greenhouse gas emission intensity by 5% by 2030	On plan

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the "Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

MATERIAL UNCERTAINTY RELATED TO GOING CONCERN

During the year ended 31 December 2024, the Group incurred a loss attributable to owners of the parent of HK$111,435,000 and, as at 31 December 2024, the Group's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by HK$104,616,000. These conditions, along with other matters as set forth in note 2.1 to the consolidated financial statements, indicate the existence of a material uncertainty which may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified in this respect.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

We have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Key audit matters

How our audit addressed the key audit matters

Revenue recognition of landscape architecture business

During the year, revenue from landscape architecture business contracts accounted for 37.2% of the Group's total revenue. Revenue from these contracts were recognised progressively over time by reference to the percentage of completion using the input method, and based on the proportion of the actual cost incurred relative to the estimated total costs for satisfaction of the design services. The measurement of the value of contract work, based on percentage of completion method involves a significant degree of judgement by management; with estimates of the budgeted total costs, expected total contract revenues and the stage of completion of the contracts. The subjectivity involved in these judgements could lead to different amounts of profit and revenue being reported in the consolidated financial statements.

The disclosures about revenue recognition are included in notes 2.4, 3, 4 and 5 to the consolidated financial statements.

We performed the following procedures, among others:

- obtained an understanding of management's budgeting processes for estimating total contract costs and forecast costs to completion, including taking into account the historical accuracy of such estimates;
- evaluated and tested the operating effectiveness of relevant internal controls regarding revenue recognition, including project controls over contract profitability and construction progress performed;
- reviewed samples of key contracts with respect of project calculations and result forecasts and management's assessment thereof, which included a comparison between the budgeted and actual cost information; and
- reviewed the adequacy of the disclosures made in the consolidated financial statements.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS (Continued)

Key audit matters	How our audit addressed the key audit matters
Recoverability of trade and bills receivables and contract assets As at 31 December 2024, trade and bills receivables and contract assets of the Group amounted to approximately HK$182,061,000 and HK$17,115,000, after net of provision for lifetime expected credit losses of approximately HK$94,545,000 and HK$77,197,000, respectively. Loss allowances for lifetime expected credit losses of trade and bills receivables and contract assets are based on management's estimates, taking into account the past bad debt loss experience, ageing of overdue trade receivables, customers' repayment history and customers' financial position and an assessment of both the current and forward looking information such as forecast general economic conditions, all of which involve significant degree of management judgement. Relevant disclosures are included in notes 2.4, 3, 6, 20 and 23 to the consolidated financial statements.	We performed the following procedures, among others: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>assessed and tested the Group's processes and key controls relating to the monitoring of trade and bills receivables and contract assets and the granting of credit terms and contract terms relating to billing milestones;</li> <li>tested the accuracy of ageing analyses and obtained direct confirmations on sample basis of customer receivable balances;</li> <li>evaluated the adequacy of the Group's impairment of trade and bills receivables and contract assets by reference to the Group's historical default data, past payment history, the historical loss rates as adjusted for the current economic condition and forward-looking information and the actual losses recorded during the current financial year;</li> <li>checked subsequent settlements received from the customers after the reporting period end; and</li> <li>reviewed the adequacy of the disclosures made in the consolidated financial statements.</li> </ul>

KEY AUDIT MATTERS (Continued)Key audit matters*How our audit addressed the key audit mattersImpairment assessment of goodwill, other intangible assets, property, plant and equipment (including right-of-use assets) – Graphene Products Business

As at 31 December 2024, in respect of Graphene Products Business, the carrying amount of goodwill, other intangible assets, property, plant and equipment (including right-of-use assets) are HK$101,939,000, HK$408,181,000, HK$19,959,000 (including right-of-use assets of HK$11,020,000) respectively, which together accounted for 65.5% (2023: 69.0%) of the Group's total assets.

Impairment is determined by assessing the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit (the "CGU") to which the goodwill, other intangible assets, property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets are allocated. The recoverable amount of the CGU is the higher of value in use and the fair value less costs to sell. For the year under review, the recoverable amount of the CGU has been determined based on the CGU's fair value less costs to sell, using cash flow projections specific to that CGU and applying a discount rate which reflects specific risks relating to that CGU, with the assistance from an independent professional qualified valuer.

The impairment testing of goodwill, other intangible assets, property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets required management to make certain estimates and assumptions that involve significant judgement and estimation uncertainties.

Relevant disclosures are included in notes 2.4, 3, 4, 13, 14 and 15 to the consolidated financial statements.

We performed the following procedures, among others:

- evaluated management's identification of the CGU, the allocation of assets to the CGU identified and the impairment assessment methodology adopted by management;
- assessed the reasonableness of the key assumptions adopted by management in the preparation of the discounted cashflow forecasts, including the pre-tax discount rate, annual revenue growth rate for the 5-years period and gross profit ratio, long term growth rate of the CGU by taking into consideration of market trends and management's future plan;
- compared actual results for the year against the previous period forecasted results prepared by management of the CGU subject to impairment assessment; and
- reviewed the adequacy of the disclosures made in the consolidated financial statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

INFORMATION OTHER THAN THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND AUDITOR'S REPORT THEREON

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTORS FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the IASB and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors of the Company either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors of the Company are assisted by the Audit Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Our report is made solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the Group as a basis for forming an opinion on the group financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Earthasia (Shanghai) Co., Ltd., EA SZ, SH Tanao, Graphex (Heilongjiang) New Energy Technology Ltd. and Graphex Shandong are registered as wholly foreign-owned enterprises under the law of the People's Republic of China (the "PRC").

The above table lists the subsidiaries of the Company which, in the opinion of the directors, principally affected the results for the year or formed a substantial portion of the net assets of the Group. To give details of other subsidiaries would, in the opinion of the directors, result in particulars of excessive length.

2.1 BASIS OF PREPARATION

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (the "IASB") and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. These consolidated financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Listing Rules"). They have been prepared under the historical cost convention, except for equity investments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss which have been measured at fair value. These financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars ("HK$") and all values are rounded to the nearest thousand except when otherwise indicated.

In August 2022, the American Depositary Shares ("ADSs") of the Company have successfully been listed on the New York Stock Exchange American ("NYSE American") with the stock symbol "GRFX". The Company will issue a separate set of consolidated financial statements prepared under the United States ("U.S.") Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("US GAAP"), which will be separately audited by the U.S. auditors registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Going concern basis

The Group recorded a loss attributable to owners of the parent of HK$111,435,000 for the year ended 31 December 2024 and net current liabilities of HK$104,616,000 as at 31 December 2024.

Up to the date of approval of the consolidated financial statements, the Group has obtained a short-term loan facility of HK$50,000,000 for financing its working capital. In addition, the Group is in serious discussions with potential investors for raising new capital by way of issuing new equity and/or debt securities.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Management has prepared a cash flow forecast of the Group for the next eighteen months from the end of the reporting period, taking into account the following:

- (i) Subsequent to the end of the reporting period and up to the date of approval of the consolidated financial statements, the Group has received settlements approximately HK$117 million of trade receivables from its customers;
- (ii) The Company has proposed to raise approximately HK$119.7 million by issuing 704,284,056 right shares at the issue price of HK$0.170 per right shares ("Right Issue") after the share consolidation of the Company's shares. Details of which are referred to the Company's announcement dated 3 December 2024 and circular dated 27 January 2025. Up to the date of approval of the consolidated financial statements, the Right Issue has not yet completed.

In view of the above circumstances, the directors of the Company have given careful consideration to the future liquidity and performance of the Group and its available sources of finance in assessing whether the Group will have sufficient financial resources to continue as a going concern in the foreseeable future.

The directors of the Company have reviewed the Group's cash flow projection prepared by management and are of the opinion that, after taking into account the measures to be implemented and have been implemented, the Group will have sufficient working capital to finance its operation and to meet its financial obligations for at least the next twelve months from the date of approval of these consolidated financial statements. Accordingly, the directors of the Company believe it is appropriate to prepare the consolidated financial statements of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2024 on a going concern basis.

Should the going concern assumption be inappropriate, adjustments may have to be made to write down the values of assets to their recoverable amounts, to provide for further liabilities that might arise, and to reclassify non-current assets and non-current liabilities as current assets and current liabilities. The effects of these adjustments have not been reflected in these consolidated financial statements.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2024. A subsidiary is an entity (including a structured entity), directly or indirectly, controlled by the Company. Control is achieved when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee (i.e. existing rights that give the Group the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee).

Generally, there is a presumption that a majority of voting rights results in control. When the Company has, directly or indirectly, less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- (a) the contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee;
- (b) rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- (c) the Group's voting rights and potential voting rights.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting period as the Company, using consistent accounting policies. The results of subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the parent of the Group and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance. All intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control described above. A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction.

If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises (i) the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary, (ii) the carrying amount of any non-controlling interests and (iii) the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity; and recognises (i) the fair value of the consideration received, (ii) the fair value of any investment retained and (iii) any resulting surplus or deficit in profit or loss. The Group's share of components previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified to profit or loss or retained profits, as appropriate, on the same basis as would be required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities.

2.2 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND DISCLOSURES

In the current year, the Group has applied the following amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards issued by the International Accounting Standards Board for the first time, which are mandatorily effective for the Group’s annual period beginning on 1 January 2024 for the preparation of these consolidated financial statements:

Amendments to IAS 1	Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current Liabilities (“2020 amendments”)
Amendments to IAS 1	Non-current Liabilities with Covenants (“2022 amendments”)
Amendments to IFRS 16	Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback
Amendments to IAS 7 and IFRS 7	Supplier Finance Arrangements

The nature and the impact of the new and revised IFRSs that are applicable to the Group are described below:

- (a) The IAS 1 amendments impact the classification of a liabilities as current or non-current, and have been applied retrospectively as a package.

The 2020 amendments primarily clarify the classification of a liabilities that can be settled in its own equity instruments. If the terms of a liability could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the transfer of the entity’s own equity instruments and that conversion option is accounted for as an equity instrument, these terms do not affect the classification of the liabilities as current or non-current. Otherwise, the transfer of equity instruments would constitute settlement of liability and impact classification.

The 2022 amendments specify that conditions with which an entity must comply after the reporting date do not affect the classification of a liability as current or non-current. However, the entity is required to disclose information about non-current liabilities subject to such conditions.

Upon the adoption of the amendments, the group has reassessed the classification of its liabilities as current or non-current and did not identify any reclassification to be made.

- (b) The IFRS 16 amendments clarify how an entity accounts for a sale and leaseback after the date of the transaction. The amendments require the seller-lessee to apply the general requirements for subsequent accounting of the lease liability in such a way that it does not recognise any gain or loss relating to the right of uses it retains. A seller-lessee is required to apply the amendments retrospectively to sale and leaseback transactions entered into after the date of initial application. The amendments do not have a material impact on these consolidated financial statements as the group has not entered into any sale and leaseback transactions.
- (c) The IAS 7 and IFRS 7 amendments introduce new disclosure requirements to enhance transparency of supplier finance arrangements and their effects on an entity’s liabilities, cash flows and exposure to liquidity risk. The amendments do not have a material impact on these consolidated financial statements.

2.3 ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE IFRS ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

The Group has not early applied the following new and amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards that have been issued but are not yet effective:

Amendments to IAS 21	Lack of Exchangeability<sup>1</sup>
Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7	Amendments to the classification and measurement of financial instruments<sup>2</sup>
Amendments to IFRS	Annual improvements to IFRS Accounting Standards – Volume 11<sup>2</sup>
Amendments to IFRS 18	Presentation and disclosure in financial statements<sup>3</sup>
Amendments to IFRS 19	Subsidiaries without public accountability: disclosure<sup>3</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2025

The Group is in the process of making an assessment of what the impact of these developments is expected to be in the period of initial application. So far it has concluded that the adoption of them is unlikely to have a significant impact on the consolidated financial statements.

2.4 MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION

Investments in associates and joint ventures

An associate is an entity in which the Group has a long-term interest of generally not less than 20% of the equity voting rights and over which it is in a position to exercise significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee, but is not control or joint control over those policies.

A joint venture is a type of joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the joint venture. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

The Group's investments in associates and joint ventures are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at the Group's share of net assets under the equity method of accounting, less any impairment loss.

Adjustments are made to bring into line any dissimilar accounting policies that may exist.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Group's share of the post-acquisition results and other comprehensive income of associates and joint ventures is included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and consolidated statement of comprehensive income, respectively. In addition, when there has been a change recognised directly in the equity of the associate or joint venture, the Group recognises its share of any changes, when applicable, in the consolidated statement of changes in equity. Unrealised gains and losses resulting from transactions between the Group and its associates or joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's investments in the associates or joint ventures, except where unrealised losses provide evidence of an impairment of the assets transferred. Goodwill arising from the acquisition of associates or joint ventures is included as part of the Group's investments in associates or joint ventures.

If an investment in an associate becomes an investment in a joint venture or vice versa, the retained interest is not remeasured. Instead, the investment continues to be accounted for under the equity method. In all other cases, upon loss of significant influence over the associate or joint control over the joint venture, the Group measures and recognises any retained investment at its fair value. Any difference between the carrying amount of the associate or joint venture upon loss of significant influence or joint control and the fair value of the retained investment and proceeds from disposal is recognised in profit or loss.

Business combinations and goodwill

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred is measured at the acquisition date fair value which is the sum of the acquisition date fair values of assets transferred by the Group, liabilities assumed by the Group to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree. For each business combination, the Group elects whether to measure the non-controlling interests in the acquiree that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of net assets in the event of liquidation at fair value or at the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. All other components of non-controlling interests are measured at fair value. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

When the Group acquires a business, it assesses the financial assets and liabilities assumed for appropriate classification and designation in accordance with the contractual terms, economic circumstances and pertinent conditions as at the acquisition date. This includes the separation of embedded derivatives in host contracts of the acquiree.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the previously held equity interest is remeasured at its acquisition date fair value and any resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the acquirer is recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Contingent consideration classified as an asset or liability is measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured and subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Goodwill is initially measured at cost, being the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred, the amount recognised for non-controlling interests and any fair value of the Group's previously held equity interests in the acquiree over the identifiable net assets acquired and liabilities assumed. If the sum of this consideration and other items is lower than the fair value of the net assets acquired, the difference is, after reassessment, recognised in profit or loss as a gain on bargain purchase.

After initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment loss. Goodwill is tested for impairment annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may be impaired. The Group performs its annual impairment test of goodwill as at the end of each reporting period. For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is, from the acquisition date, allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units, or groups of cash-generating units, that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, irrespective of whether other assets or liabilities of the Group are assigned to those units or groups of units.

Impairment is determined by assessing the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit (group of cash-generating units) to which the goodwill relates. Where the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit (group of cash-generating units) is less than the carrying amount, an impairment loss is recognised. An impairment loss recognised for goodwill is not reversed in a subsequent period.

Where goodwill has been allocated to a cash-generating unit (or group of cash-generating units) and part of the operation within that unit is disposed of, the goodwill associated with the operation disposed of is included in the carrying amount of the operation when determining the gain or loss on the disposal. Goodwill disposed of in these circumstances is measured based on the relative value of the operation disposed of and the portion of the cash-generating unit retained, unless the Group can demonstrate that some other method better reflects the goodwill associated with the operation disposed of.

Fair value measurement

The Group measures its derivative financial instruments and equity investments at fair value at the end of each reporting period. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either in the principal market for the asset or liability, or in the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability. The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

- |         |   |   |
|---------|---|---|
| Level 1 | – | based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities   |
| Level 2 | – | based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is observable, either directly or indirectly |
| Level 3 | – | based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable                              |

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorisation (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

Impairment of non-financial assets

Where an indication of impairment exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required (other than service contract assets, financial assets and deferred tax assets), the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's or cash-generating unit's value in use and its fair value less costs of disposal, and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets, in which case the recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

An impairment loss is recognised only if the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. An impairment loss is charged to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it arises in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset.

An assessment is made at the end of each reporting period as to whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment loss may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated. A previously recognised impairment loss of an asset other than goodwill is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount of that asset, but not to an amount higher than the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any depreciation/amortisation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. A reversal of such an impairment loss is credited to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it arises, unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case the reversal of the impairment loss is accounted for in accordance with the relevant accounting policy for that revalued asset.

Property, plant and equipment and depreciation

Property, plant and equipment, other than construction in progress and buildings, are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment loss. The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use.

Expenditure incurred after items of property, plant and equipment have been put into operation, such as repairs and maintenance, is normally charged to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it is incurred. In situations where the recognition criteria are satisfied, the expenditure for a major inspection is capitalised in the carrying amount of the asset as a replacement. Where significant parts of property, plant and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Group recognises such parts as individual assets with specific useful lives and depreciates them accordingly.

Depreciation is calculated on the straight-line basis to write off the cost of each item of property, plant and equipment over its estimated useful life. The principal annual rates used for this purpose are as follows:

Right-of-use assets	Over the lease terms
Leasehold improvements	Over the shorter of the lease terms and 20%
Furniture and equipment	20%
Motor vehicles	20%
Plant and machinery	20%

Where parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, the cost of that item is allocated on a reasonable basis among the parts and each part is depreciated separately. Useful lives and the depreciation method are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at least at each financial year end.

An item of property, plant and equipment and any significant part initially recognised is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss on disposal or retirement recognised in the statement of profit or loss in the year the asset is derecognised is the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the relevant asset.

Construction in progress represents a building under construction, which is stated at cost less accumulated impairment loss, and is not depreciated. Cost comprises the direct costs of construction and capitalised borrowing costs on related borrowed funds during the period of construction. Construction in progress is reclassification to the appropriate category of property, plant and equipment when completed and ready for use.

Non-current assets and disposal group held for sale

Non-current assets and disposal groups are classified as held for sale if their carrying amounts will be recovered through a sales transaction rather than through continuing use. For this to be the case, the asset or disposal group must be available for immediate sale in its present condition subject to only to terms that are usual and customary for the sale of such assets or disposal groups and its sale must be highly probable. All assets and liabilities of a subsidiary classified as a disposal group are reclassified as held for sale regardless of whether the Group retains a non-controlling interest in its former subsidiary after the sale.

Non-current assets and disposal groups (other than investment properties and financial assets) classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their carrying amounts and fair value less costs to sell. Property, plant and equipment and intangible assets classified as held for sale are not depreciated or amortised.

Intangible assets (other than goodwill)

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. The cost of intangible assets acquired in a business combination is the fair value at the date of acquisition. The useful lives of intangible assets are assessed to be either finite or indefinite. Intangible assets with finite lives are subsequently amortised over the useful economic life and assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. The amortisation period and the amortisation method for an intangible asset with a finite useful life are reviewed at least at each financial year end.

Intangible assets are amortised on the straight-line basis over the following useful economic lives:

Software	3–5 years
Backlog contract	20 years
Brand names	8–10 years
Patents	15 years
Trademarks	15 years
Customer relationship	15 years

Research and development costs

All research costs are charged to the statement of profit or loss as incurred.

Expenditure incurred on projects to develop new products is capitalised and deferred only when the Group can demonstrate the technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use or sale, its intention to complete and its ability to use or sell the asset, how the asset will generate future economic benefits, the availability of resources to complete the project and the ability to measure reliably the expenditure during the development. Product development expenditure which does not meet these criteria is expensed when incurred.

Leased assets

At inception of a contract, the Group assesses whether the contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease of the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. Control is conveyed where the customer has both the right to direct the use of the identified asset and to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from that use.

As a lessee

Where the contract contains lease component(s) and non-lease component(s), the Group has elected not to separate non-lease components and accounts for each lease component and any associated non-lease components as a single lease component for all leases.

At the lease commencement date, the Group recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability, except for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less and leases of low-value assets. When the Group enters into a lease in respect of low-value asset, the Group decides whether to capitalize the lease on a lease-by-lease basis. The lease payments associated with those leases which are not capitalised are recognised as an expense on a systematic basis over the lease term.

Where the lease is capitalised, the lease liability is initially recognised at the present value of the lease payments payable over the lease term, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, using a relevant incremental borrowing rate. After initial recognition, the lease liability is measured at amortised cost and interest expense is calculated using the effective interest method. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or rate are not included in the measurement of the lease liability and hence are charged to profit or loss in the accounting period in which they are incurred.

The right-of-use assets recognise when a lease is capitalised is initially measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability plus any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, and any initial direct costs incurred. Where applicable, the cost of the right-of-use assets also includes an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located, discounted to their present value, less any lease incentive received. The right-of-use asset is subsequently stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment loss, except for the following types of right-of-use asset:

- right-of-use assets that meet the definition of investment property are carried at fair value; and
- right-of-use assets related to leasehold land and buildings where the Group is the registered owner of the leasehold interest are carried at cost.

The lease liability is remeasured when there is a change in future lease payments arising from a change in an index or rate, or there is a change in the Group's estimate of the amount expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee, or there is a change arising from the reassessment of whether the group will be reasonably certain to exercise a purchase, extension or termination option. When the lease liability is remeasured in this way, a corresponding adjustment is made to the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset, or is recorded in profit or loss if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset has been reduced to zero.

The lease liability is also remeasured when there is a change in the scope of a lease or the consideration for a lease that is not originally provided for in the lease contract ("lease modification") that is not accounted for as a separate lease. In this case the lease liability is remeasured based on the revised lease payments and lease term using a revised discount rate at the effective date of the modification.

In the consolidated statement of financial position, the current portion of long-term lease liability is determined as the present value of contractual payments that are due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period.

Financial instruments

(i) Financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income, and fair value through profit or loss.

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them. With the exception of trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group initially measures a financial asset at its fair value, plus in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs. Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient are measured at the transaction price determined under IFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers.

In order for a financial asset to be classified and measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income, it needs to give rise to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest ("SPPI") on the principal amount outstanding. This assessment is referred to as the solely payments of principal and interest test and is performed at an instrument level.

The Group's business model for managing financial assets refers to how it manages its financial assets in order to generate cash flows. The business model determines whether cash flows will result from collecting contractual cash flows, selling the financial assets, or both.

All regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on the trade date, that is, the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the period generally established by regulation or convention in the marketplace.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows:

Financial assets at amortised cost (debt instruments)

The Group measures financial assets at amortised cost if both of the following conditions are met:

- The financial asset is held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows.
- The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured using the effective interest method and are subject to impairment. Gains and losses are recognised in the statement of profit or loss when the asset is derecognised, modified or impaired.

Financial assets designated at fair value through other comprehensive income (equity investments)

Upon initial recognition, the Group can elect to classify irrevocably its equity investments as equity investments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income when they meet the definition of equity under IAS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation and are not held for trading. The classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

Gains and losses on these financial assets are never recycled to profit or loss. Dividends are recognised as other income in the consolidated statement of profit or loss when the right of payment has been established, except when the Group benefits from such proceeds as a recovery of part of the cost of the financial asset, in which case, such gains are recorded in other comprehensive income. Equity investments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income are not subject to impairment assessment.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss include financial assets held for trading, financial assets designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss, or financial assets mandatorily required to be measured at fair value. Financial assets are classified as held for trading if they are acquired for the purpose of selling or repurchasing in the near term. Derivatives, including separated embedded derivatives, are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments. Financial assets with cash flows that are not solely payments of principal and interest are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss, irrespective of the business model. Notwithstanding the criteria for debt instruments to be classified at amortised cost or at fair value through other comprehensive income, as described above, debt instruments may be designated at fair value through profit or loss on initial recognition if doing so eliminates, or significantly reduces, an accounting mismatch.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are carried in the statement of financial position at fair value with net changes in fair value recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

This category includes derivative instruments.

A derivative embedded in a hybrid contract, with a financial liability or non-financial host, is separated from the host and accounted for as a separate derivative if the economic characteristics and risks are not closely related to the host; a separate instrument with the same terms as the embedded derivative would meet the definition of a derivative; and the hybrid contract is not measured at fair value through profit or loss. Embedded derivatives are measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in the statement of profit or loss. Reassessment only occurs if there is either a change in the terms of the contract that significantly modifies the cash flows that would otherwise be required or a reclassification of a financial asset out of the fair value through profit or loss category.

A derivative embedded within a hybrid contract containing a financial asset host is not accounted for separately. The financial asset host together with the embedded derivative is required to be classified in its entirety as a financial asset at fair value through profit or loss.

(ii) Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities through profit or loss, lease liabilities, loans and borrowings and payables.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs. The Group's financial liabilities include trade payables, other payables and accruals and interest-bearing borrowings.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on the classification as follows:

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss.

Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are incurred for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term. This category also includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Group that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships as defined by IFRS 9 Financial Instruments. Separated embedded derivatives are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments. Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

Financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss are designated at the initial date of recognition, and only if the criteria in IFRS 9 Financial Instruments are satisfied.

Loans and borrowings

After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost. Gains and losses are recognised in the statement of profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the effective interest rate amortisation process.

Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the effective interest rate. The effective interest rate amortisation is included in finance costs in the statement of profit or loss.

Convertible notes that contain an equity component

Convertible notes that can be converted into ordinary shares at the option of the holder, where a fixed number of shares are issued for a fixed number of cash or other financial assets, are accounted for as compound financial instruments, i.e. they contain both a liability component and an equity component.

An initial recognition the liability component of the convertible notes is measured at fair value based on the future interest and principal payments, discounted at the prevailing market rate of interest for similar non-convertible instruments. The equity component is the difference between the initial fair value of the convertible notes as a whole and the initial fair value of the liability component. Transaction costs that relate to the issue of a compound financial instrument are allocated to the liability and equity components in proportion to the allocation of proceeds.

The liability component is subsequently carried at amortised cost. Interest expense recognised in profit or loss on the liability component is calculated using the effective interest method. The equity component is not remeasured and is recognised in the capital reserve until the notes are converted.

If the notes are converted, the capital reserve, together with the carrying amount of the liability component at the time of conversion, is transferred to share capital and share premium as consideration for the shares issued.

Derecognition of financial assets and financial liabilities

(i) Financial assets

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e. removed from the Group's consolidated statement of financial position) when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or
- the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a "pass-through" arrangement; and either (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates, if and to what extent, it has retained the risk and rewards of ownership of the asset. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, the Group continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of the Group's continuing involvement. In that case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Group could be required to repay.

(ii) Financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled, or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and a recognition of a new liability, and the difference between the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

(iii) Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the statement of financial position if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises an allowance for expected credit losses ("ECLs") for all debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

General approach

ECLs are recognised in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12-months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition. When making the assessment, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition and considers reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort, including historical and forward-looking information.

In certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group. A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

Financial assets at amortised cost are subject to impairment under the general approach and they are classified within the following stages for measurement of ECLs except for trade receivables and contract assets which apply the simplified approach as detailed below.

Stage 1	–	Financial instruments for which credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to 12-month ECLs
Stage 2	–	Financial instruments for which credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition but that are not credit-impaired financial assets and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs
Stage 3	–	Financial assets that are credit-impaired at the reporting date (but that are not purchased or originated credit-impaired) and for which the loss

Simplified approach

For trade and bills receivables and contract assets that do not contain a significant financing component or when the Group applies the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group applies the simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Under the simplified approach, the Group does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. The Group has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

Treasury shares

Own equity instruments which are reacquired and held by the Company or the Group (treasury shares) are recognised directly in equity at cost. No gain or loss is recognised in the statement of profit or loss on the purchase, sale, issue or cancellation of the Group's own equity instruments.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined on the first-in, first-out basis and, in the case of work in progress and finished goods, comprises direct materials, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of overheads. Net realisable value is based on estimated selling prices less any estimated costs to be incurred to completion and disposal.

Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and demand deposits, and short term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash, are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, and have a short maturity of generally within three months when acquired, less bank overdrafts which are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management.

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of financial position, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and at banks, including term deposits, which are not restricted as to use.

Provisions

A provision is recognised when a present obligation (legal or constructive) has arisen as a result of a past event and it is probable that a future outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, provided that a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

When the effect of discounting is material, the amount recognised for a provision is the present value at the end of each of the reporting period of the future expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation. The increase in the discounted present value amount arising from the passage of time is included in finance costs in profit or loss.

A contingent liability recognised in a business combination is initially measured at its fair value. Subsequently, it is measured at the higher of (i) the amount that would be recognised in accordance with the general guidance for provisions above; and (ii) the amount initially recognised less, when appropriate, cumulative amortisation recognised in accordance with the guidance for revenue recognition.

Income tax

Income tax comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period, taking into consideration interpretations and practices prevailing in the countries/jurisdictions in which the Group operates.

Deferred tax is provided, using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except

- when the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carryforward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, the carryforward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:

- when the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary differences arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, deferred tax assets are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each reporting period and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the each of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if and only if the Group has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets and current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

Government grants

Government grants are recognised at their fair value where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attaching conditions will be complied with. When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognised as income on a systematic basis over the periods that the costs, which it is intended to compensate, are expensed.

Where the grant relates to an asset, the fair value is credited to a deferred income account and is released to the statement of profit or loss over the expected useful life of the relevant asset by equal annual instalments or deducted from the carrying amount of the asset and released to the statement of profit or loss by way of a reduced depreciation charge.

Where the Group receives grants of non-monetary assets, the grants are recorded at the fair value of the non-monetary assets and released to the statement of profit or loss over the expected useful lives of the relevant assets by equal annual instalments.

Revenue and other income

Revenue from contracts with customers

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognised when control of goods or services is transferred to the customers at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services.

When the consideration in a contract includes a variable amount, the amount of consideration is estimated to which the Group will be entitled in exchange for transferring the goods or services to the customer. The variable consideration is estimated at contract inception and constrained until it is highly probable that a significant revenue reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the associated uncertainty with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

When the contract contains a financing component which provides the customer a significant benefit of financing the transfer of goods or services to the customer for more than one year, revenue is measured at the present value of the amount receivable, discounted using the discount rate that would be reflected in a separate financing transaction between the Group and the customer at contract inception. When the contract contains a financing component which provides the Group a significant financial benefit for more than one year, revenue recognised under the contract includes the interest expense accreted on the contract liability under the effective interest method. For a contract where the period between the payment by the customer and the transfer of the promised goods or services is one year or less, the transaction price is not adjusted for the effects of a significant financing component, using the practical expedient in IFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers.

(a) Sale of graphene products

Revenue from sale of graphene products is recognised at the point in time when control of the asset is transferred to the customer, generally on delivery of the graphene products.

(b) Landscape architecture design

Revenue from the provision of landscape architecture design is recognised over time, using an input method to measure progress towards complete satisfaction of the service, because the Group's performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the asset is created or enhanced. The input method recognises revenue based on the proportion of the actual costs incurred relative to the estimated total costs for satisfaction of the construction services.

Claims to customers are amounts that the Group seeks to collect from the customers as reimbursement of costs and margins for scope of works not included in the original landscape architecture business contract. Claims are accounted for as variable consideration and constrained until it is highly probable that a significant revenue reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the associated uncertainty with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved. The Group uses the expected value method to estimate the amounts of claims because this method best predicts the amount of variable consideration to which the Group will be entitled.

(c) Provision of management services

Revenue from the provision of management services is recognised over the scheduled period on a straight-line basis because the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group.

(d) Catering services

Revenue from the provision of catering services is recognised at the point in time when control of the asset is transferred to the customer, generally on delivery of the products.

There are no contracts for the provision of catering services that provide customers with rights of return or volume rebates.

Other income

Interest income is recognised on an accrual basis using the effective interest method by applying the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash receipts over the expected life of the financial instrument or a shorter period, when appropriate, to the net carrying amount of the financial asset.

Dividend income is recognised when the shareholders' right to receive payment has been established, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Group and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

Contract assets

A contract asset is the right to consideration in exchange for goods or services transferred to the customer. If the Group performs by transferring goods or services to a customer before the customer pays consideration or before payment is due, a contract asset is recognised for the earned consideration that is conditional. Contract assets are subject to impairment assessment, details of which are included in the accounting policies for impairment for financial assets.

Contract liabilities

A contract liability is recognised when a payment is received or a payment is due (whichever is earlier) from a customer before the Group transfers the related goods or services. Contract liabilities are recognised as revenue when the Group performs under the contract (i.e. transfers control of the related goods or services).

Contract costs

Other than the costs which are capitalised as inventories, property, plant and equipment and intangible assets, costs incurred to fulfil a contract with a customer are capitalised as an asset if all of the following criteria are met:

- (a) The costs relate directly to a contract or to an anticipated contract that the entity can specifically identify.
- (b) The costs generate or enhance resources of the entity that will be used in satisfying (or in continuing to satisfy) performance obligations in the future.
- (c) The costs are expected to be recovered.

The capitalised contract costs are amortised and charged to the statement of profit or loss on a systematic basis that is consistent with the pattern of the revenue to which the asset related is recognised. Other contract costs are expensed as incurred.

Share-based payments

The Company operates a share award scheme for the purpose of providing incentives and rewards to eligible participants who contribute to the success of the Group's operations. Employees (including directors) of the Group receive remuneration in the form of share-based payments, whereby employees render services as consideration for equity instruments ("equity-settled transactions").

The cost of equity-settled transactions with employees for grants after 7 November 2002 is measured by reference to the fair value at the date at which they are granted.

The cost of equity-settled transactions is recognised in employee benefit expense, together with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period in which the performance and/or service conditions are fulfilled. The cumulative expense recognised for equity-settled transactions at the end of each reporting period until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. The charge or credit to the statement of profit or loss for a period represents the movement in the cumulative expense recognised as at the beginning and end of that period.

Service and non-market performance conditions are not taken into account when determining the grant date fair value of awards, but the likelihood of the conditions being met is assessed as part of the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. Market performance conditions are reflected within the grant date fair value. Any other conditions attached to an award, but without an associated service requirement, are considered to be non-vesting conditions. Non-vesting conditions are reflected in the fair value of an award and lead to an immediate expensing of an award unless there are also service and/or performance conditions.

For awards that do not ultimately vest because non-market performance and/or service conditions have not been met, no expense is recognised. Where awards include a market or non-vesting condition, the transactions are treated as vesting irrespective of whether the market or non-vesting condition is satisfied, provided that all other performance and/or service conditions are satisfied.

Where the terms of an equity-settled award are modified, as a minimum an expense is recognised as if the terms had not been modified, if the original terms of the award are met. In addition, an expense is recognised for any modification that increases the total fair value of the share-based payments, or is otherwise beneficial to the employee as measured at the date of modification.

Where an equity-settled award is cancelled, it is treated as if it had vested on the date of cancellation, and any expense not yet recognised for the award is recognised immediately. This includes any award where non-vesting conditions within the control of either the Group or the employee are not met. However, if a new award is substituted for the cancelled award, and is designated as a replacement award on the date that it is granted, the cancelled and new awards are treated as if they were a modification of the original award, as described in the previous paragraph.

The dilutive effect of outstanding options is reflected as additional share dilution in the computation of earnings per share.

The cost of cash-settled transactions is measured initially at fair value at the grant date. The fair value is expensed over the period until the vesting date with recognition of a corresponding liability. The cumulative expense recognised for cash-settled transactions at the end of each reporting period until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Group's best estimate of the number of awards that will ultimately vest. The liability is measured at the end of each reporting period up to and including the settlement date, with changes in fair value recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

Other employee benefits

Pension schemes

The Group operates a defined contribution Mandatory Provident Fund retirement benefit scheme (the “MPF Scheme”) under the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance in Hong Kong for all of its employees. Contributions are made based on a percentage of the employees’ basic salaries and are charged to the statement of profit or loss as they become payable in accordance with the rules of the MPF Scheme. The assets of the MPF Scheme are held separately from those of the Group in an independently administered fund. The Group’s employer contributions vest fully with the employees when contributed into the MPF Scheme.

Hong Kong employees that have been employed continuously for at least five years are entitled to long service payments in accordance with the Hong Kong Employment Ordinance under certain circumstances. These circumstances include where an employee is dismissed for reasons other than serious misconduct or redundancy, that employee resigns at the age of 65 or above, or the employment contract is of fixed term and expires without renewal. The amount of Long Service Payment (“LSP”) payable is determined with reference to the employee’s final salary (capped at HK$22,500) and the years of service, reduced by the amount of any accrued benefits derived from the Group’s contributions to MPF scheme, with an overall cap of HK$390,000 per employee. Currently, the Group does not have any separate funding arrangement in place to meet its LSP obligation.

In June 2022, the Government gazetted the Amendment Ordinance, which will eventually abolish the statutory right of an employer to reduce its LSP payable to a Hong Kong employee by drawing on its mandatory contributions to the MPF scheme. The Government has subsequently announced that the Amendment Ordinance will come into effect from the Transition Date i.e. 1 May 2025. Separately, the Government has also introduced a subsidy scheme to assist employers after the abolition.

Among other things, once the abolition of the offsetting mechanism takes effect, an employer can no longer use any of the accrued benefits derived from its mandatory MPF contributions (irrespective of the contributions made before, on or after the Transition Date) to reduce the LSP in respect of an employee’s service from the Transition Date. However, where an employee’s employment commenced before the Transition Date, the employer can continue to use the above accrued benefits to reduce the LSP in respect of the employee’s service up to that date; in addition, the LSP in respect of the service before the Transition Date will be calculated based on the employee’s monthly salary immediately before the Transition Date and the years of service up to that date.

The Group has determined that the Amendment Ordinance has no material impact on the Group’s LSP liability with respect to employees in Hong Kong.

The employees of the Group’s subsidiaries which operate in Mainland China are required to participate in a central pension scheme operated by the local municipal government. These subsidiaries are required to contribute 14% to 20% of their payroll costs to the central pension scheme. The contributions are charged to the statement of profit or loss as they become payable in accordance with the rules of the central pension scheme.

Termination benefits

Termination benefits are recognised at the earlier of when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits and when the Group recognises restructuring costs involving the payment of termination benefits.

Defined benefit plan

The Group operates a defined benefit pension plan which requires contributions to be made to a separately administered fund. The benefits are unfunded. The cost of providing benefits under the defined benefit plan is determined using the projected unit credit actuarial valuation method.

Remeasurements arising from defined benefit pension plans, comprising actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the asset ceiling (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability) and the return on plan assets (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability), are recognised immediately in the consolidated statement of financial position with a corresponding debit or credit to retained profits through other comprehensive income in the period in which they occur. Remeasurements are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

- Past service costs are recognised in profit or loss at the earlier of:
  - the date of the plan amendment or curtailment; and
  - the date that the Group recognises restructuring-related costs

Net interest is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net defined benefit liability or asset. The Group recognises the following changes in the net defined benefit obligation under “cost of sales” and “administrative expenses” in the consolidated statement of profit or loss by function:

- service costs comprising current service costs, past-service costs, gains and losses on curtailments and non-routine settlements
- net interest expense or income

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, i.e., assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are capitalised as part of the cost of those assets. The capitalisation of such borrowing costs ceases when the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs capitalised. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

Dividends

Final dividends are recognised as a liability when they are approved by the shareholders in a general meeting. Proposed final dividends are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

Interim dividends are simultaneously proposed and declared, because the Company’s memorandum and articles of association grant the directors the authority to declare interim dividends. Consequently, interim dividends are recognised immediately as a liability when they are proposed and declared.

Foreign currencies

These financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars, which is the Company's functional currency. Each entity in the Group determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency. Foreign currency transactions recorded by the entities in the Group are initially recorded using their respective functional currency rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency rates of exchange ruling at the end of the reporting period. Differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognised in profit or loss.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was measured. The gain or loss arising on translation of a non-monetary item measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on change in fair value of the item (i.e., translation difference on the item whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss is also recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss, respectively).

In determining the exchange rate on initial recognition of the related asset, expense or income on the derecognition of a non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability relating to an advance consideration, the date of initial transaction is the date on which the Group initially recognises the non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability arising from the advance consideration. If there are multiple payments or receipts in advance, the Group determines the transaction date for each payment or receipt of the advance consideration.

The functional currencies of certain overseas subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates are currencies other than the Hong Kong dollar. As at the end of the reporting period, the assets and liabilities of these entities are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the exchange rates prevailing at the end of the reporting period and their statements of profit or loss are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the weighted average exchange rates for the year.

The resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the exchange fluctuation reserve. On disposal of a foreign operation, the component of other comprehensive income relating to that particular foreign operation is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Any goodwill arising on the acquisition of a foreign operation and any fair value adjustments to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities arising on acquisition are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign operation and translated at the closing rate.

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, the cash flows of overseas subsidiaries are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the exchange rates ruling at the dates of the cash flows. Frequently recurring cash flows of overseas subsidiaries which arise throughout the year are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the weighted average exchange rates for the year.

Preference shares

Preference shares issued by the Group redeemable only at the Company's option and contain no contractual obligation to deliver cash or another financial asset. The Group classifies preference shares issued as an equity instrument. Fees, commissions and other transaction costs of preference share issuance are deducted from equity. The dividends on preference shares, if any, are recognised as profit distribution at the time of declaration.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

Judgements

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgements, apart from those involving estimations, which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements:

The Group applied the following judgements that significantly affect the determination of the amount and timing of revenue from contracts with customers:

Revenue from contracts with customers

- (i) Determining the method to estimate variable consideration and assessing the constraint for landscape architecture design

The Group seeks to collect claims from the customers as reimbursement of costs and margins for scope of works not included in the original landscape design contract, which give rise to variable consideration. The Group determined that the expected value method is the appropriate method to use in estimating the variable consideration for claims in landscape architecture design, given there is a wide range of possible outcomes which are subject to negotiations with third parties.

Before including any amount of variable consideration in the transaction price, the Group considers whether the amount of variable consideration is constrained. The Group determined that the estimates of variable consideration are not constrained based on its historical experience, current negotiations with customers, profitability of the head contracts of the customers and the current economic conditions.

The Group concluded that revenue for landscape architecture design is to be recognised over time because the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group. The fact that another entity would not need to re-perform the landscape architecture design that the Group has provided to date demonstrates that the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits of the Group's performance as it performs.

Judgements (Continued)

(ii) Determining the timing of satisfaction of landscape architecture design and the recognition of revenue

The Group determined that the input method is the best method in measuring the progress of the landscape architecture design because there is a direct relationship between the Group's effort (i.e., labour hours incurred) and the transfer of services to the customer. The Group recognises revenue on the basis of the cost expended relative to the total expected cost to complete the services. Since the duration of providing the design services is relatively long and may cover more than one accounting period, the Group will review the contracts, revise budgets and adjust the revenue accordingly as the contract progresses.

Estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below.

Estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment and other intangible assets

The Group's management determines the useful lives and related depreciation/amortisation charges for the Group's property, plant and equipment, and other intangible assets. This estimate is based on the historical experience of the actual useful lives of property, plant and equipment, and other intangible assets of similar nature and functions. It could change significantly as a result of technical innovations and competitor actions in response to severe industry cycles. Management will increase the depreciation/amortisation charges where useful lives are less than previously estimated, or it will write off or write down technically obsolete or non-strategic assets that have been abandoned or sold. Actual economic lives may differ from estimated useful lives. Periodic review could result in a change in depreciable/amortisable lives and therefore depreciation/amortisation in the future periods.

Leases – Estimating the incremental borrowing rate

The Group cannot readily determine the interest rate implicit in the lease, therefore, it uses an incremental borrowing rate ("IBR") to measure its lease liabilities. The IBR is the rate of interest that the Group would have to pay a borrower over a similar term, and with a similar security, the funds necessary to obtain an asset of a similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment. The Group estimates the IBR using observable inputs, such as market interest rates when available and is required to make certain entity-specific estimates.

Impairment of goodwill

The Group determines whether goodwill is impaired at least on an annual basis. This requires an estimation of the value in use of the cash-generating units to which the goodwill is allocated. Estimating the value in use requires the Group to make an estimate of the expected future cash flows from the cash-generating units and also to choose a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows. The carrying amount of goodwill at 31 December 2024 was HK$101,939,000 (2023: HK$101,939,000). Further details are given in note 14.

Provision for expected credit losses on trade and bills receivables and contract assets

The Group uses a provision matrix to calculate ECLs for trade and bills receivables and contract assets. The provision rates are based on days past due for groupings of various customer segments that have similar loss patterns (i.e., by geography, product type, customer type and rating, and coverage by letters of credit and other forms of credit insurance).

The provision matrix is initially based on the Group's historical observed default rates. The Group will calibrate the matrix to adjust the historical credit loss experience with forward-looking information. For instance, if forecast economic conditions (i.e., gross domestic products) are expected to deteriorate over the next year which can lead to an increased number of defaults in the manufacturing sector, the historical default rates are adjusted. At each reporting date, the historical observed default rates are updated and changes in the forward-looking estimates are analysed.

The assessment of the correlation among historical observed default rates, forecast economic conditions and ECLs is a significant estimate. The amount of ECLs is sensitive to changes in circumstances and forecast economic conditions. The Group's historical credit loss experience and forecast of economic conditions may also not be representative of customer's actual default in the future. The information about the ECLs on the Group's trade and bills receivables and contract assets is disclosed in note 20 and note 23 to the consolidated financial statements, respectively.

Impairment of non-financial assets (other than goodwill)

The Group assesses whether there are any indicators of impairment for all non-financial assets at the end of each reporting period. Non-financial assets are tested for impairment when there are indicators that the carrying amounts may not be recoverable. An impairment exists when the carrying value of an asset or a cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of its fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. The calculation of the fair value less costs of disposal is based on available data from binding sales transactions in an arm's length transaction of similar assets or observable market prices less incremental costs for disposing of the asset. When value-in-use calculations are undertaken, management must estimate the expected future cash flows from the asset or cash-generating unit and choose a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows.

Fair value of unlisted equity investments

The unlisted equity investments have been valued based on a market-based valuation technique as detailed in note 43 to the consolidated financial statements. The valuation requires the Group to determine the comparable public companies (peers) and select the price multiple. In addition, the Group makes estimates about the discount for illiquidity and size differences. The Group classifies the fair value measurement of these investments as Level 3. The fair value of the unlisted equity investments at 31 December 2024 was HK$45,000 (2023: HK$34,000). Further details are included in note 18 to the consolidated financial statements.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Deferred tax assets

Deferred tax assets are recognised for deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Significant management judgement is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognised, based upon the likely timing and level of future taxable profits and temporary differences. Where the actual or expected tax positions of the relevant companies of the Group in future are different from the original estimate, such differences will impact on the recognition of deferred tax assets and income tax charge in the period in which such estimate has been changed.

Development costs

The Group determines whether costs of research and development qualify for capitalisation, and has developed criteria in making that judgement. Therefore, the Group considers whether costs of research and development to be capitalised generates future cash flows, and whether the Group has the technical feasibility of completing the development so that the item under research and development will be available for use or sale and the Group has the intention to complete the development. The Group also considers the ability in measuring development expenditure during the development.

Fair value of liability component of convertible notes at issue date

The fair value of liability component of convertible notes at each of the issue dates was determined by reference to the estimated present value of the future cash flows discounted using a discount rate which reflect the market interest rates on similar credit rating financial instruments at the respective issue dates.

Going concern basis

Up to the date of approval of the consolidated financial statements, the Group has obtained a short-term loan facility of HK$50,000,000 for financing its working capital. In addition, the Group is in serious discussions with potential investors for raising new capital by way of issuing new equity and/or debt securities. The directors of the Company are of the opinion that the Group will be able to obtain necessary funds for its working capital requirements such that the Group will be able to continue as a going concern in the foreseeable future.

4. OPERATING SEGMENT INFORMATION

Information reported to the board of directors, being the chief operating decision maker (CODM), for the purposes of resources allocation and assessment of segment performance focuses on types of goods and services delivered and provided.

For management purpose, the Group has identified the following three major reportable segments. Certain segments have been aggregated to form the following reportable segments:

- (a) Processing and sale of graphite and graphene related products ("Graphene Products Segment");
- (b) Providing landscape architecture design ("Landscape Architecture Design Segment"); and
- (c) The catering business focused on the operation of restaurants ("Catering Segment").

Management monitors the results of the Group's operating segments separately for the purpose of making decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment. Segment performance is evaluated based on reportable segment profit, which is a measure of adjusted profit/loss before tax. The adjusted profit/loss before tax is measured consistently with the Group's profit/loss before tax except that finance costs, as well as head office and corporate income and expenses are excluded from such measurement.

Segment assets exclude deferred tax assets, cash and bank balances and other unallocated head office and corporate assets as these assets are managed on a group basis.

Segment liabilities exclude tax payable, deferred tax liabilities and other unallocated head office and corporate liabilities as these liabilities are managed on a group basis.

14. GOODWILL

	2024 HK$'000	2023 HK$'000
Cost	101,939	101,939

At 31 December 2024 and 2023, the goodwill represented the expected future profitability of the existing Graphene Products Business that was acquired by the Group in previous years.

Impairment test of Graphene Products Business to which goodwill is allocated

During the year ended 31 December 2024, the Graphene Products Business segment has revenue from external customers of approximately HK$118 million (2023: HK$194.9 million) and adjusted EBITDA (as defined in note 4) of approximately HK$17.7 million (2023: HK$38.3 million), respectively. The ratio of adjusted EBITDA over revenue of the Graphene Products Business was about 15.0% (2023: 19.7%).

As at 31 December 2024, goodwill of HK$101,939,000 (2023: HK$101,939,000), together with other intangible assets (note 15), property, plant and equipment (note 13) and rights-of-use assets (note 13) are allocated to the cash-generating unit (the "CGU") of Graphene Products Business. The recoverable amount of the CGU is determined from value in use calculations. The key assumptions for the value in use calculations are those regarding the discount rates, growth rates and expected changes in selling price and direct costs of graphene during the projection period. The directors of the Company estimate discount rates using pre-tax rates that reflect current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the CGU. The growth rate is based on industry growth forecasts. Changes in selling prices and direct costs are based on past practices and expectations of future changes in the market.

The calculation uses cash flow projections based on financial budgets approved by management covering a 5-years period and a pre-tax discount rate of 19.5% (2023: 20%) for the year ended 31 December 2024. The cash flows projections beyond the 5-year period are extrapolated using a terminal growth rate of 2% (2023: 2%). This terminal growth rate is based on the relevant industry growth forecasts and does not exceed the average long-term growth rate for the relevant industry. Other key assumptions for the value in use calculations relate to the estimation of cash inflows/outflows which include budgeted sales and gross margin, and such estimation is based on the unit's past performance and management's expectations for the market development. The ratio of EBITDA over revenue is estimated to be about 19.0% to 28.1% (2023: 21.6% to 28.1%) during the budget for the next 5 years, taking into account of strong demand for global electric vehicles and lithium-ion batteries, for which, the Group's graphene products are applied as their graphite anode materials.

The Group engaged International Valuation Limited ("IVL") (2023: STEAM Valuation Advisory Limited ("STEAM")), an independent firm of qualified valuers not related to the Group and with qualifications and experiences in valuing similar assets, to determine the recoverable amount of the CGU of the Graphene Products Business to which goodwill of HK$101,939,000 (2023: HK$101,939,000), other intangible assets of HK$408,181,000 (2023: HK$460,623,000) (note 15), property, other plant and equipment of HK$8,939,000 (2023: HK$9,990,000) (note 13) and right-of-use assets of HK$11,020,000 (2023: HK$12,468,000) (note 13) are allocated, as at 31 December 2024.

With reference to the assessment by IVL (2023: STEAM), the recoverable amount of the CGU of the Graphene Products Business at 31 December 2024 is estimated at approximately HK$655,184,000 (2023: HK$787,327,000). As the recoverable amount of the CGU of the Graphene Products Business exceeded its carrying amount, with headroom of approximately HK$17.2 million (2023: HK$86.4 million), no impairment was required for the years ended 31 December 2024 (2023: HK$nil).

Other key assumptions for the value in use calculations is the budgeted terminal growth rate of 2% (2023: 2%) beyond 5 years, which is determined based on the past performance, management's expectations for the market development and market growth forecasts. The ratio of EBITDA over revenue is estimated to be about 19.0% to 28.1% (2023: 21.6% to 28.1%) during the budget for the next 5 years, taking into account of demand for electric vehicles and lithium-ion batteries, for which, the Group's graphene products are applied as their graphite anode materials.

Based on the impairment test as detailed in note 14 above, by reference to the valuation prepared by IVL (2023: STEAM), the recoverable amount of the CGU, to which patents, trademarks and customer relationships, related goodwill (note 14), property, plant and equipment (note 13) and right-of-use assets (note 13) are allocated, exceeds its carrying amount as at 31 December 2024. The Group's trading terms with its customers are mainly on credit, except for new customers, where payment in advance is normally required. The credit period is two months, extending up to six months for major customers. Each customer has a maximum credit limit. The Group seeks to maintain strict control over its outstanding receivables to minimise credit risk. Overdue balances are reviewed regularly by senior management. In view of the aforementioned and the fact that the Group's trade and bill receivables relate to a large number of diversified customers, there is no significant concentration of credit risk. The Group does not hold any collateral or other credit enhancements over its trade and bills receivables balances. Trade and bills receivables are non-interest-bearing.

An ageing analysis of the trade and bills receivables at the end of each reporting period, based on the invoice date and/or delivery date and net of loss allowance for lifetime expected credit losses, is as follows:

20. TRADE AND BILLS RECEIVABLES (Continued)

The provision rates are based on invoice date for groupings of various customer segments with similar loss patterns (i.e., by geographical region, product type, customer type and rating, and coverage by letters of credit or other forms of credit insurance). The calculation reflects the probability-weighted outcome, the time value of money and reasonable and supportable information that is available at the reporting date about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions, and settlement patterns and history of the customers as adjusted for subsequent settlements received by the Group up to the date of approval of the consolidated financial statements.

23. CONTRACT ASSETS (Continued)

An impairment analysis is performed at each reporting date using a provision matrix to measure expected credit losses. The provision rates for the measurement of the expected credit losses of the contract assets are based on those of the trade receivables as the contract assets and the trade receivables are from the same customer bases. The provision rates of contract assets are based on days past due of trade receivables for groupings of various customer segments with similar loss patterns (i.e., by geographical region, product type, customer type and rating, and coverage by letters of credit or other forms of credit insurance). The calculation reflects the probability-weighted outcome, the time value of money and reasonable and supportable information that is available at the reporting date about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions.

On 14 December 2023, the Board resolved to grant an aggregate of 10,128,072 shares, which represented approximately 1.13% of the Company's shares in issue at that date, to twelve employees. The closing price of the shares immediately before the grant date was HK$0.375 each share. The fair value of the 10,128,072 shares awarded on the grant date was valued at HK$0.38 each share which was determined based on closing market price of the Company on the grant date.

As disclosed above, a total of 68,349,307 shares awards were granted to certain Grantees under the 2023 Share Award Scheme, and among which a total of 15,094,797 shares awards were granted to the Directors and senior management. Out of the aforesaid 15,094,797 share awards were granted to the Directors and senior management, 10,554,797 shares awards were granted to 2 senior management with the vesting period less than 12 months from the date of grant.

There is no performance target attached with the shares awards granted under the 2023 Share Award Scheme which, however, are subject to general clawback mechanism that if a grantee ceases to be a participant on the grounds that he has committed any act of fraud or dishonesty or serious misconduct, or has been declared or adjudged to be bankrupt, or has been convicted of any criminal offence or has been convicted for any offence under any securities laws or regulations in Hong Kong, that relevant share awards made to such grantee shall automatically be cancelled.

The Remuneration Committee has noted that the 2023 Share Award Scheme is intended to attract talents, suitable personnel and entities who will accept awarded shares as part of their remuneration, compensation or payment packages for the development and growth of the businesses of the Group; to award certain selected participants with award shares for accepting their appointments, employments or engagement by the Group; to provide certain participants with incentives in order to retain them for the continual operation, development and growth of the Group and to improve or create sense of connection and/or loyalty of certain selected participants to the Group. In recommending the grant of those share awards to the selected participants and determining the number of share awards and the relevant vesting periods for the share awards to be granted, the Remuneration Committee has considered factors such as (i) whether they were considered as talent and personnel that could contribute to the development and growth of the business of the Group that the Company would want to recruit with reference to their industry experience, tenure and roles with the Group; (ii) the remuneration of them including the grant of share awards as part of their remuneration packages as an incentive offered by the Group as compared with those offered by the industry peers in order to attract them in joining the Group; (iii) whether they would accept award shares as part of their remuneration or compensation package and as inducement for them to accept any offer for appointment; (iv) the business synergy and opportunities that might be brought by them to the Group; and (v) whether the share awards could further motivate their performances for the benefit of the businesses of the Group.

The Remuneration Committee considered that for those share awards granted with the vesting period less than 12 months from the date of grant is appropriate and necessary to enable the Company to provide competitive terms and conditions to valuable talent for the development and growth of the Group's Graphene Products Business. It is necessary to enable the Company to offer competitive employment package to the grantees in order to retain valuable and loyal talent and to attract the talent and suitable personnel who will accept award shares as part of his/her remuneration, compensation or payment packages in accepting to stay on and continue his/her employment with the Group to further promote the development and growth of the Group's businesses, to improve or create sense of connection and/or loyalty of him/her to the Group and to provide incentive to him/her to continue to work for the success and improve the performance of the Group and thus it could align the interest of the grantees with the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

Accordingly, having taken into account the factors above, the Remuneration Committee considered that notwithstanding the absence of performance targets, the shorter vesting period and the limited clawback mechanism, the share awards granted during the year ended 31 December 2023 can incentivize the grantees to strive for the future development of the Company which was in line with the purpose of 2023 Share Award Scheme.

36. EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT BENEFITS

- (a) The Group operates a Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme (the "MPF Scheme") under the Hong Kong Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance for employees employed under the jurisdiction of the Hong Kong Employment Ordinance. Under the MPF Scheme, the employer and its employees are each required to make contributions to the plan at 5% of the employees' relevant income, subject to a cap of monthly relevant income of HK$30,000. Contributions to the plan vest immediately.

The employees of the Group's subsidiaries in the PRC are members of a state-managed retirement benefit scheme operated by the government of the PRC. The subsidiaries are required to contribute a specified percentage of payroll costs to the retirement benefit scheme to fund the benefits. The only obligation of the Group with respect to the retirement benefit scheme is to make the specified contributions. Under the state-managed retirement benefit scheme, the contributions once made by the employer will vest fully with the employees, and no forfeiture could be made by the Group. Accordingly, there is no forfeited contribution available for the Group to reduce its existing level of contributions to the retirement benefit scheme in future years.

The total expense recognised in profit or loss of HK$7,390,000 (2023: HK$12,901,000) represented contributions payable to these plans by the Group at rates specified in the rules of the plans. The Group has no other material obligations for payments of retirement and other post-retirement benefits of employees other than the contributions described above.

- (b) Hong Kong employees that have been employed continuously for at least five years are entitled to long service payments in accordance with the Hong Kong Employment Ordinance under certain circumstances. These circumstances include where an employee is dismissed for reasons other than serious misconduct or redundancy, that employee resigns at the age of 65 or above, or the employment contract is of fixed term and expires without renewal. The amount of LSP payable is determined with reference to the employee's final salary (capped at HK$22,500) and the years of service, reduced by the amount of any accrued benefits derived from the Group's contributions to MPF scheme, with an overall cap of HK$390,000 per employee. Currently, the Group does not have any separate funding arrangement in place to meet its LSP obligation.

In June 2022, the Government gazetted the Amendment Ordinance, which will eventually abolish the statutory right of an employer to reduce its LSP payable to a Hong Kong employee by drawing on its mandatory contributions to the MPF scheme. The Government has subsequently announced that the Amendment Ordinance will come into effect from the Transition Date i.e. 1 May 2025. Separately, the Government has also introduced a subsidy scheme to assist employers after the abolition.

Among other things, once the abolition of the offsetting mechanism takes effect, an employer can no longer use any of the accrued benefits derived from its mandatory MPF contributions (irrespective of the contributions made before, on or after the Transition Date) to reduce the LSP in respect of an employee's service from the Transition Date. However, where an employee's employment commenced before the Transition Date, the employer can continue to use the above accrued benefits to reduce the LSP in respect of the employee's service up to that date; in addition, the LSP in respect of the service before the Transition Date will be calculated based on the employee's monthly salary immediately before the Transition Date and the years of service up to that date.

The Group has determined that the Amendment Ordinance has no material impact on the Group's LSP liability with respect to employees in Hong Kong.

37. OTHER RESERVES

The amounts of the Group's reserves and the movements therein for the current and prior year are presented in the consolidated statement of changes in equity on pages 107 to 108 of the consolidated financial statements.

Statutory reserve fund

In accordance with the PRC Company Law and the PRC subsidiaries' articles of association, each of the subsidiaries registered in the PRC as a domestic company is required to appropriate 10% of its annual statutory net profit as determined under PRC Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (after offsetting any prior years' losses) to the statutory surplus reserve. When the balance of this statutory reserve fund reaches 50% of the entity's capital, any further appropriation is optional. The statutory reserve fund can be utilised to offset prior years' losses or to increase capital. However, the balance of the statutory surplus reserve must be maintained at a minimum of 25% of the capital after these usages.

(b) Capital commitments (Continued)

- (iii) On 19 July 2023, the Company entered into the Cooperation Agreement with the Nanshu Town Government pursuant to which the Company and the Nanshu Town Government intended to have a cooperation in the “Graphite Anode Material Project” (“Phase 1 Project”) in Laixi City Nanshu Town New Material Industrial Park which is situated in Nanshu Town, Laixi City, Shandong Province, the PRC. Subject to obtaining all approval from the PRC government, the Company will set up the factory plants for the manufacturing of lithium-ion battery anode materials in the Park. The Company can apply for the relevant policy subsidies of “Several Preferential Measures for Investment Promotion in Laixi City (Trial)” (Xifa [2023] No. 1) after meeting the relevant requirements. It is estimated that the Company’s total investment will be around RMB1,000 million. The Company intends to fund the Phase 1 Project by the Group’s internal resources and/or bank borrowings and/or future fundraising exercise. The Company obtained the energy permit for Phase 1 Project in August 2024 and is pending for the approval of the environmental permit. The Company was informed by the local power supply authorities that the current power supply was not sufficient for the factory use of Phase 1 Project. The Company has consulted a local power engineering company regarding this issue and is negotiating with the landlord and Nanshu Town Government about possible remedies. In light of this situation, Phase 1 Project implementation will be delayed.

On 10 January 2024, Graphex Shangdong, an indirectly wholly-owned subsidiary of the Group, as the tenant, and an independent third party, the landlord, entered into a lease agreement in respect of the factory buildings located in Laixi City, Shandong Province, PRC for an aggregate term of 10 years made up of an initial term of 5 years and a subsequent term of 5 years which shall be extended automatically after expiry of the initial term. The undiscounted total rentals payable under the lease agreement for the full lease term of 10 years is RMB58,872,000 (equivalent as stipulated in the lease agreement to approximately HK$65,936,000). Due to the delay implementation of Phase 1 for reasons mentioned above, the factory buildings as stipulated in the lease agreement have not been handed over to Graphex Shangdong up to the date of approval of these consolidated financial statements, and the landlord has agreed that Graphex Shangdong lease agreement will not be commenced until the landlord has provided Graphex Shangdong with the legal proof of its right to lease the factory buildings. The right-of-use assets and the lease liabilities have not yet recognised at 31 December 2024.

- (iv) During the year and at the reporting period end pursuant to the above Cooperation Agreement, the Company and the Nanshu Town Government have intention of jointly working in the construction of the Phase 2 of graphite deep processing project located in the graphite industry cluster area of Nanshu Town (the “Phase 2 Project”). ## NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

43. FAIR VALUE AND FAIR VALUE HIERARCHY OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The carrying amounts and fair values of the Group's financial instruments, other than those with carrying amounts that reasonably approximate to fair values, are as follows:

	Carrying amounts		Fair values
	2024 HK$'000	2023 HK$'000	2024 HK$'000	2023 HK$'000
Financial assets
Equity investments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income	45	34	45	34
Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss	23	23	23	23
	68	57	68	57

Management has assessed that the fair values of cash and cash equivalents, trade and bills receivables, trade payables, financial assets included in prepayments, other receivables and other assets, financial liabilities included in other payables and accruals, interest-bearing borrowings other than finance lease payables, approximate to their carrying amounts largely due to the short-term maturities of these instruments.

The Group's finance department headed by the finance manager is responsible for determining the policies and procedures for the fair value measurement of financial instruments. The finance manager reports directly to the chief financial officer and the audit committee. At each reporting date, the finance department analyses the movements in the values of financial instruments and determines the major inputs applied in the valuation. The valuation is reviewed and approved by the chief financial officer. The valuation process and results are discussed with the audit committee twice a year for interim and annual financial reporting.

The fair values of the financial assets and liabilities are included at the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale. The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair values:

The fair value of interest-bearing borrowings has been calculated by discounting the expected future cash flows using rates currently available for instruments with similar terms, credit risk and remaining maturities.

43. FAIR VALUE AND FAIR VALUE HIERARCHY OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (Continued)

The fair values of unlisted equity investments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income have been estimated using a market-based valuation technique based on assumptions that are not supported by observable market prices or rates. The valuation requires the directors to determine comparable public companies (peers) based on industry, size, leverage and strategy, and calculates an appropriate price multiple, such as enterprise value to earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortisation ("EV/EBITDA") multiple and price to earnings ("P/E") multiple, for each comparable company identified. The multiple is calculated by dividing the enterprise value of the comparable company by an earnings measure. The trading multiple is then discounted for considerations such as illiquidity and size differences between the comparable companies based on company-specific facts and circumstances. The discounted multiple is applied to the corresponding earnings measure of the unlisted equity investments to measure the fair value.

The directors believe that the estimated fair values resulting from the valuation technique, which are recorded in the consolidated statement of financial position, and the related changes in fair values, which are recorded in other comprehensive income, are reasonable, and that they were the most appropriate values at the end of the reporting period.

Below is a summary of significant unobservable inputs to the valuation of unlisted equity investments together with a quantitative sensitivity analysis as at 31 December 2024 and 2023:

	Valuation technique	Significant unobservable input	Range	Sensitivity of fair value to the input
Unlisted equity investments	Valuation multiples	Average P/E multiple of peers	2024: 1.7 – 7.2 (2023: 0.24 – 1.03)	1% increase/ (decrease) in multiple would have no material impact on the fair value
		Discount for lack of marketability	2024: 20% (2023: 20%)	1% increase/ (decrease) in discount would have no material impact on the fair value

The discount for lack of marketability represents the amounts of premiums and discounts determined by the Group that market participants would take into account when pricing the investments.

44. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

The Group's principal financial instruments consist mainly of equity investments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, cash and cash equivalents, dividends payable, lease liabilities, promissory note, contingent liabilities and interest-bearing borrowings. The main purpose of these financial instruments was to raise finance for the Group's operations. The Group has various other financial assets and liabilities such as trade and bills receivables, other receivables, trade payables and other payables, which arise directly from its operations.

The main risks arising from the Group's financial instruments are interest rate risk, foreign currency risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group does not have any written risk management policies and guidelines. Generally, the Group introduces conservative strategies on its risk management. The board of directors reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks and they are summarised below:

Interest rate risk

Since the interest-bearing borrowings have fixed interest rates, there was no significant interest rate risk as at the end of the reporting period.

Foreign currency risk

The Group has transactional currency exposures. Such exposures arise from financial instruments such as trade and bills receivables and cash and cash equivalents by operating units in currencies other than the units' functional currencies.

Credit risk

The Group trades only with recognised and creditworthy third parties. It is the Group's policy that all customers who wish to trade on credit terms are subject to credit verification procedures.

Maximum exposure and year-end staging

The table below shows the credit quality and the maximum exposure to credit risk based on the Group's credit policy, which is mainly based on past due information unless other information is available without undue cost or effort, and year-end staging classification at the end of the reporting period. For listed debt investments, the Group also monitors them by using external credit ratings. The amounts presented are net carrying amounts after provision for ECLs for financial assets.

* For trade receivables and contract assets to which the Group applies the simplified approach for impairment, information based on the provision matrix is disclosed in notes 20 and 23 to the financial statements, respectively.

** The credit quality of the financial assets included in prepayments, other receivables and other assets is considered to be “normal” when they are not past due and there is no information indicating that the financial assets had a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. Otherwise, the credit quality of the financial assets is considered to be “doubtful”.

Since the Group trades only with recognised and creditworthy third parties, there is no requirement for collateral. The Group's exposure to credit risk is influenced mainly by the individual characteristics of each customer and the industries (mainly Landscape Architecture Design and Graphene Products Business) in which the customers operate and therefore significant concentrations of credit risk primarily arise when the Group has significant exposure to individual customers. At the end of the reporting period, 10.05% (2023: 1.58%) and 60.11% (2023: 43.45%) of the total trade receivables was due from the Group's largest customer and the five largest customers, respectively.

The Group performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers' financial conditions. The allowance for doubtful debts is based upon a review of the expected collectability of all trade and bills receivables.

Further quantitative data in respect of the Group's exposure to credit risk arising from trade and bills receivables and other receivables are disclosed in notes 20 and 21 to the financial statements, respectively.
